“ABABABA” Returns to Mill Neck Manor

Back by popular demand, comic Alan R. Abarbanell will present his critically acclaimed one-man-show, “The ABABABA Road Tour.” The show chronicles his experiences growing up hearing in a Deaf family. ABABABA will be held on Friday night, October 11, from 7-9 pm in the Deaf Education Auditorium on the Mill Neck Manor campus. Tickets are $15 per person and can be purchased at the door for $20.

ABABABA, a name given to him by a friend who could not pronounce Abarbanell, is a proud CODA (Child of Deaf Adults) and a member of CODA International. Alan wrote this as a loving tribute to his Deaf heritage and CODA family. Each performance is dedicated to Alan’s parents Joe and Yetta Abarbanell, whom he credits for his sense of humor, creativity and love of community.

For more information, or to reserve tickets for “The ABABABA Road Tour,” email Loretta Murray at deafesq@millneck.org.

In addition to Mill Manor School for the Deaf, established in 1951 to help Deaf children unlock their potential through quality education, the Mill Neck Family of Organizations includes Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf, the Mill Neck Manor Early Childhood Center, Mill Neck Services for Deaf Adults, Mill Neck Foundation, Mill Neck Audiology, Mill Neck Interpreter Service and Lutheran Friends of the Deaf. For more information, please call (516) 922-4100 or visit <http://www.millneck.org>.
