Learn Manners in the Manor House Children's Program Teaches Proper Dining Etiquette

On Saturday, April 14, 2012 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Mill Neck Manor is playing host to the spirited Nanny Rose and her good-natured domestic, Olivia, as they guide children through proper etiquette lessons. In this amusing and educational 90-minute program, children will learn Proper Dining Etiquette and Manners that may be applied at home, in a restaurant, or in more formal circumstances.

This laughter-filled and fast-paced show enables children to learn in a relaxed and entertaining atmosphere. At the conclusion of the program, each child will receive a personally-signed Certificate of Achievement from Nanny Rose and Olivia for their participation in this delightful and informative special event.

The cost of $40 per child (for ages 6+) includes the interactive performance and a light lunch. All proceeds benefit Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf. Reservations and payment are required in advance. Sign language interpreters will be available for guests who are Deaf, provided a request is made in advance. To register, log on to www.millneck.org or call (516) 628-4243.

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for people who are Deaf, or who have other special needs, through excellence in individually-designed educational, vocational or spiritual programs and services. For more information, please call (516) 922-4100 or visit <http://www.millneck.org>.
