Mill Neck Manor Children Treat Moms to Afternoon Tea

Mother's Day arrived a few days earlier at Mill Neck Manor's Deaf Education Center (DEC) and Mill Neck Manor Early Childhood Center (ECC), where preschoolers hosted their moms at an afternoon tea party. At the DEC, children beamed as they showed off the unique placemats and colorful paper "bouquets" they created to adorn the tables. Children at the ECC used paper plates, ribbon and rainbow-hued tissue paper to craft fashionable bonnets for their moms.

Along with iced tea, everyone enjoyed a lunch that included bite-size sandwiches, followed by a selection of sweets, featuring mini cupcakes and decorative cookies. The variety of refreshments was a hit with kids and moms alike, as noted by the bright smiles seen in the classrooms of both schools!

The children and their teachers did a wonderful job in putting together a festive afternoon for all. For the moms of these Mill Neck Manor students, Mother's Day got off to an early, and memorable, start.

Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and the Early Childhood Center are part of the Mill Neck Family of Organizations, a not-for-profit group dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for people who are Deaf, or who have other special communication needs, through excellence in individually designed educational, vocational or spiritual programs and services.
