Sweet Fashion Show
Mill Neck to Host 2nd Fashionable Event

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations and the Mill Neck Manor Alumni Association will host a “Sweet Fashion Show” at the historic Mill Neck Manor House. This year’s event, taking place on Sunday, May 6, 2012 from 1 to 4 p.m., once again features the latest designer looks from the renowned Brooks Brothers’ line. Spring fashions will be modeled by Mill Neck’s own students, parents and staff. The Manor’s dramatic, double staircase will serve as the models’ runway while the first floor will showcase chic boutiques and one-of-kind jewelry. Stylish, not-to-be missed raffles and a special dessert auction will be available. Guests will also enjoy tastings from a selection of mini quiches, fruits, cheeses and delectable desserts. In addition to Brooks Brothers, the Mill Neck Family is extremely grateful to the following sponsors: The Leader of Locust Valley, our advertising sponsor; Salon Luna of Bellmore for providing hair and make-up styling and our food tasting sponsors to date: Cardinale Bakery of Carle Place, Loafers Bakery in Locust Valley, Sweet Tomato of Oyster Bay and Glen Cove, Oyster Bay’s Gooseberry Grove and Elegant Affairs in Glen Cove.

Proceeds from the “Sweet Fashion Show” will benefit the Mill Neck Family of Organizations, which includes Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf, Mill Neck Manor Early Childhood Center and Mill Neck Services for Deaf Adults. The cost of the event is $50 per person. Space is limited; last year’s show quickly sold out. For more information, or to reserve your fashionable seat, log on to www.millneck.org or call (516) 628-4243. To inquire about sponsoring the event, please call (516) 628-4243.

The mission of the Mill Neck Manor Alumni Association is to support students and the Deaf community. Through participation in numerous events, the Alumni Association raises funds to enhance programs and services provided by the Mill Neck Family of Organizations.
