Welcome to Mill Neck Family of Organizations

Congratulations and welcome to the Mill Neck Family of Organizations. This Personnel Policy book has been prepared with the intention of giving you specific information regarding the policies, benefits and services of Mill Neck. This handbook will also explain what the Mill Neck Manor Family of Organizations expects from you now that you are part of the team. We know you will help us achieve even greater success. As used in this employee manual, the term "Mill Neck Family of Organizations or Mill Neck" refers to each of its affiliates: The Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf, Mill Neck Early Childhood Center, Mill Neck Foundation, and Mill Neck Services.

Our Mission Statement

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations exists to enhance the quality of life for people who are Deaf, or who have other special needs, through excellence in individually designed educational, vocational, or spiritual programs and services.

Our Goal

Our primary goal, and everyone's responsibility, is to serve our students, participants, and donors. By working together and striving for excellence in all we do, we help ensure our success and growth in the Family of Organizations.

Whether you have just joined our staff or have been at Mill Neck for a while, we are confident that you will find our company a dynamic and rewarding place in which to work, and we look forward to a productive and successful association. Each of us must take the initiative to serve our students, participants, and donors to the best of our ability. We consider the employees of Mill Neck Family of Organizations to be one of our most valuable resources. This handbook has been written to serve as the guide for the employer/employee relationship.

There are several things to keep in mind about this handbook. First, it contains only general information and guidelines. It is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all the possible applications of, or exceptions to, the general policies and procedures described. For that reason, if you have any questions concerning eligibility for a particular benefit or the applicability of a policy or practice to you, you should address your specific questions to the Human Resources department. Neither this handbook nor any other company document confers any contractual right; either expressed or implied, to remain in the company's employ. Nor does it guarantee any fixed terms and conditions of your employment. Your employment is not for any specific time and may be terminated at will, with or without cause, and without prior notice by the company, or you may resign for any reason at any time. No supervisor or other representative of the company (except the Superintendent of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and Early Childhood Center, President of the Foundation, and Executive Director of Mill Neck Services) has the authority to enter into any agreement for employment for any specified period of time or to make any agreement contrary to the above.

The procedures, practices, policies and benefits described here may be modified or discontinued from time to time. We will try to inform you of any changes as they occur.

This handbook and the information in it should be treated as confidential. No portion of this handbook should be disclosed to others, except Mill Neck Family of Organization's employees and others affiliated with Mill Neck whose knowledge of the information is required in the normal course of business.

Some subjects described in this handbook are covered in detail in official policy documents. Refer to these documents for specific information because the handbook only briefly summarizes those guidelines and benefits. Please note that the terms of the written insurance policies are controlling and override any statements made in this or other documents.

Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

Mill Neck Family of Organizations provides equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, marital status, amnesty or status as a covered veteran in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. Mill Neck Family of Organizations complies with applicable state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment in every location in which the company has facilities. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leaves of absence, compensation and training.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations expressly prohibits any form of unlawful employee harassment based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, genetic information, disability or veteran status. Improper interference with the ability of Mill Neck Family of Organizations employees to perform their expected job duties is absolutely not tolerated.

All employees have a responsibility to treat others with dignity and respect at all times. All employees are expected to exhibit conduct that reflects inclusion during work, at work functions on or off the work site, and at all company-sponsored and participative events.

All employees are also required to attend and complete diversity awareness training to enhance their knowledge to fulfill this responsibility.

Anti-Harassment Policy and Complaint Procedure

Mill Neck Family of Organizations is committed to a work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Each individual has the right to work in a professional atmosphere that promotes equal employment opportunities and prohibits unlawful discriminatory practices, including harassment. Therefore, Mill Neck expects that all relationships among persons in the office will be business-like and free of bias, prejudice and harassment.

It is the policy of Mill Neck's to ensure equal employment opportunity without discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, marital status, amnesty or status as a covered veteran. Mill Neck prohibits any such discrimination or harassment.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations encourages reporting of all perceived incidents of discrimination or harassment. It is the policy of Mill Neck to promptly and thoroughly investigate such reports. Mill Neck Family of Organizations prohibits retaliation against any individual who reports discrimination or harassment or who participates in an investigation of such reports.

Definitions of Harassment

Sexual harassment constitutes discrimination and is illegal under federal, state and local laws. For the purposes of this policy, sexual harassment is defined, as in the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Guidelines, as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when, for example a) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; b) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or c) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Sexual harassment may include a range of subtle and not-so-subtle behaviors and may involve individuals of the same or different gender. Depending on the circumstances, these behaviors may include unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors; sexual jokes and innuendo; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; commentary about an individual's body, sexual prowess or sexual deficiencies; leering, whistling or touching; insulting or obscene comments or gestures; display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures; and other physical, verbal or visual conduct of a sexual nature.

Harassment on the basis of any other protected characteristic is also strictly prohibited. Under this policy, harassment is verbal, written or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of his/her race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, marital status, citizenship, genetic information or any other characteristic protected by law or that of his/her relatives, friends or associates, and that a) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment; b) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or c) otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Harassing conduct includes epithets, slurs or negative stereotyping; threatening, intimidating or hostile acts; denigrating jokes; and written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group and that is placed on walls or elsewhere on the employer's premises or circulated in the workplace, on company time or using company equipment via e-mail, phone (including voice messages), text messages, tweets, blogs, social networking sites or other means.

Individuals and Conduct Covered

These policies apply to all applicants and employees, whether related to conduct engaged in by fellow employees or someone not directly connected to Mill Neck Family of Organizations (e.g., an outside vendor, consultant or customer).

Conduct prohibited by these policies is unacceptable in the workplace and in any work-related setting outside the workplace, such as during business trips, business meetings and business-related social events.

Complaint Process

Individuals who believe they have been the victims of conduct prohibited by this policy statement, or who believe they have witnessed such conduct, should discuss their concerns with their immediate supervisor, Human Resources or any member of management.

When possible, Mill Neck Family of Organizations encourages individuals who believe they are being subjected to such conduct to promptly advise the offender that his or her behavior is unwelcome and request that it be discontinued. Often this action alone will resolve the problem. Mill Neck recognizes, however, that an individual may prefer to pursue the matter through complaint procedures.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations encourages the prompt reporting of complaints or concerns so that rapid and constructive action can be taken before relationships become irreparably strained. Therefore, although no fixed reporting period has been established, early reporting and intervention have proven to be the most effective method of resolving actual or perceived incidents of harassment.

Any reported allegations of harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be investigated promptly. The investigation may include individual interviews with the parties involved and, where necessary, with individuals who may have observed the alleged conduct or may have other relevant knowledge. Confidentiality will be maintained throughout the investigatory process to the extent consistent with adequate investigation and appropriate corrective action.

Retaliation against an individual for reporting harassment or discrimination or for participating in an investigation of a claim of harassment or discrimination is a serious violation of this policy and, like harassment or discrimination itself, will be subject to disciplinary action. Acts of retaliation should be reported immediately and will be promptly investigated and addressed. Misconduct constituting harassment, discrimination or retaliation will be dealt with appropriately.

If a party to a complaint does not agree with its resolution, that party may appeal to the Superintendent of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and Early Childhood Center, President of the Foundation, Executive Director of Mill Neck Services, or Human Resources.

False and malicious complaints of harassment, discrimination or retaliation may be the subject of appropriate disciplinary action.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA)

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act, known as the ADAAA, are federal laws that prohibit employers with 15 or more employees from discriminating against applicants and individuals with disabilities and that when needed provide reasonable accommodations to applicants and employees who are qualified for a job, with or without reasonable accommodations, so that they may perform the essential job duties of the position.

It is the policy of Mill Neck Family of Organizations to comply with all federal and state laws concerning the employment of persons with disabilities and to act in accordance with regulations and guidance issued by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Furthermore, it is our company policy not to discriminate against qualified individuals with disabilities in regard to application procedures, hiring, advancement, discharge, compensation, training or other terms, conditions and privileges of employment.

The company will reasonably accommodate qualified individuals with a disability so that they can perform the essential functions of a job unless doing so causes a direct threat to these individuals or others in the workplace and the threat cannot be eliminated by reasonable accommodation and/or if the accommodation creates an undue hardship to Mill Neck Family of Organizations. Contact the Human Resource department with any questions or requests for accommodation.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations' Affirmative Action Plan

Mill Neck Family of Organizations developed an Affirmative Action plan to provide positive action to assure that Equal Employment Opportunities are given to all minorities, disabled people, and women who are employed by or seek employment with Mill Neck. Mill Neck Family of Organizations is committed to the support of this plan and to the good-faith effort to achieve its objectives. This Affirmative Action Plan was developed according to Executive Order No. 11246.

It is Mill Neck Family of Organizations' policy to provide equal employment opportunity to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, sex, color, creed, religion, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, marital status or sexual orientation in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations of federal, state, and city entities. This policy applies to all the terms and conditions of employment including, but not limited to hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, compensation and training. Advancement to positions and greater responsibility is based on an individual's abilities and demonstrated performance.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations is committed to Equal Employment Opportunity, and as part of our Affirmative Action Plan we shall:

- a. Recruit, hire, upgrade, train and promote in all job classifications, without regard to race, sex, color, creed, religion, age, gender identity, national origin, disability, marital status or sexual orientation in accordance with all applicable laws, directives and regulations of federal, state and city entities;

- d. Ensure that promotion decisions will be made in accordance with the principles of Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action by imposing only valid requirements for promotional opportunities;
- e. Take action to prevent harassment including sexual harassment or intimidation of all employees, particularly those encompassed by Mill Neck Family of Organizations' Affirmative Action efforts.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations will vigorously pursue opportunities to recruit and develop job candidates who have the desire and potential for becoming qualified employees through our Affirmative Action Program.

Management performance in this program will be evaluated, as is performance in other company goals.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations' Zero Tolerance Policy

Mill Neck Family of Organizations continues to vigorously strive for the highest standards at all times. We are committed to maintaining a pleasant work environment that is a desirable and create a rewarding experience for employees. It is the responsibility of employees to maintain the highest standards of conduct for themselves. Every person has a responsibility to comply with and support our Zero Tolerance Statement and to behave in a manner that is respectable.

The intent of this policy is to set the expectation of those behaviors that Mill Neck Family of Organizations has deemed as severe and unacceptable resulting in termination. When enforcing the zero tolerance standards the following should be considered; the intent of the offender, the effect of the transgression on others (both those directly and indirectly involved), and, finally the impact on the agency. The punishment should fit the "crime".

Zero Tolerance essentially means that no intentional behavior will be tolerated that is deliberately perpetrated with the purpose of harming others at the agency, for personal gain or vengeance. Transgressions include but are not limited to: workplace violence, fraud, vandalism, theft of any kind, the use of any object as a weapon and/or conducting any type of illegal activity.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations' Total Communication Policy

Mill Neck's Family of Organizations' total communication philosophy is based on (a) full access to all communication in any environment, (b) the importance of a consumer's self-expression; and (c) respect for each individual's communication needs. Mill Neck employs the use of all modes of expression which result in mutual understanding:

American Sign Language (ASL), spoken, signed or written English, gestures, speech reading; use of residual hearing; and augmentative communication devices. These principles do not require the use of any one language or mode of communication at all times. Accessibility, appropriateness and clarity of concept and meaning are the fundamental concerns.

GOALS

At Mill Neck Family of Organizations, it is expected that visual/manual communication which is at a professionally proficient level for full participation by deaf individuals be utilized at all times when deaf persons are present so that the communicative environment remains open and accessible for all participants and staff.

Staff development programs, which promote full access to a rich communicative environment and curriculum for all participants, will be provided, and it is expected that all staff participate in such programs. Professional growth and assessment programs, which include measurable standards of expressive and receptive proficiencies, will be part of staff development.

Mill Neck's Code of Business Conduct & Ethics

Mill Neck has adopted the following standards and will advise all representatives that they are expected to comply with these standards:

1. Business Principles

a. Maintain the Confidentiality of Agency Records

The agency is responsible and accountable for the integrity and protection of its business information. All agency records and documents (in any form or media) are the sole property of the agency and thereby considered confidential by its nature, except as provided by law or regulation. No Mill Neck representative shall disclose to others any confidential information obtained during the course of employment, work (paid or unpaid) or receipt of reports, which have not been published or disclosed, to the public. Documents and electronic media containing sensitive information on participants, staff, consultants, volunteer, interns, board members and other representatives of the agency must be carefully handled and properly secured. If any Mill Neck representative observes or becomes aware of a breach of this policy including misuse of confidential information, or an unauthorized or unrecognized individual using a computer terminal in an area familiar to you, immediately contact a supervisor.

b. Avoid Unauthorized Use of Agency Assets

It is the obligation of all agency representatives to protect the assets of the agency. Agency property, such as office supplies, office equipment, and property, may not be used for personal reasons. Any misuse or misappropriations of agency funds, information, equipment, facilities or other assets may be considered criminal behavior and can bring severe employment and legal consequences.

c. Maintain the Corporate Image

The agency's reputation and identity are among its most valuable assets. All agency representatives are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the agency's image and identity, both internal and external. No one should act in a way that adversely affects the reputation or image of the agency with employees, volunteers, interns, participants or with the community at large.

Each agency representative should endeavor to deal fairly with the agency's participants, consultants, suppliers, competitors and other employees. No one should take advantage of anyone else through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or other unfair-dealing practice.

d. Have Job Accountability

Each employee is responsible for knowing and executing the responsibilities of his or her job. This means the individual is held accountable for the quality of the work he or she produces. In addition, management is responsible for ensuring that they have provided their employees with the necessary information to do their jobs.

e. Avoid Conflicts of Interests

The goal of Mill Neck is to avoid, where possible, even the appearance of impropriety by avoiding Conflicts of Interest. Therefore, it has adopted the following guidelines related to Conflicts of Interest and Related Party Transactions and shall include these guidelines in its advice to all representatives.

Each agency's representative has a primary business responsibility to the agency and is expected to avoid any activity that may interfere or have the appearance of interfering with their performance. A Conflict of Interest arises whenever the personal or professional interest of a representative is or may be at odds with the best interests of Mill Neck. A conflict of interest exists if a representative's outside business or other interests may affect adversely, or have the potential to affect adversely, his or her motivation, objectivity, loyalty or performance. In addition, a potential conflict of interest occurs when the representative's individual personal or private interests might lead an independent observer to reasonably question whether the representative's professional actions or decisions are influenced by significant personal interest, financial or otherwise.

A related party transaction exists when there is a transaction between Mill Neck or any affiliated member of the Mill Neck Family of Organizations and one or more of its directors or officers or any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers or have a substantial financial interest. A related party transaction is always a Conflict of Interest under this policy, but a Conflict of Interest is not necessarily limited to related party transactions.

Representatives must avoid any relationship or activity that might impair, or even appear to impair, their ability to make objective and fair decisions when performing their jobs. At times, a representative may be faced with situations in which business actions taken on behalf of Mill Neck may conflict with the representative's own personal interests. Company property, information or business opportunities may not be used for personal gain.

Agency representatives shall not participate in the selection, award or administration of a contract supported by Federal or state funds if a real or apparent conflict of interest would be involved. Such a conflict would arise when the representative or any member of his or her immediate family, his or her partner, or when the agency employs or is about to employ any of the parties indicated herein, has a financial or other interest in the firm selected for an award.

Some additional situations in which employees might encounter conflicts of interest are:

- Having a relationship with a participant outside of the workplace and/or employment by a participant or family member of a participant;
- Being employed by, or acting as a consultant to, a competitor, supplier or contractor regardless of the nature of the employment while employed with Mill Neck Family of Organizations;

- Hiring and supervising family members or closely related persons;
- The employment of family members or close personal friends as contractors, suppliers, or employees of the agency;
- Romantic relationships between supervisor and subordinate;
- Using agency assets, including agency time, name, information, equipment or facilities, for personal use;
- Misuse of information obtained by an employee during the course of his or her employment;
- Serving as board member for an outside commercial company or organization that has a business relationship with Mill Neck Family of Organizations;
- Owning or having a substantial interest in a competitor, supplier or contractor;
- Soliciting personal cash or non-cash gifts of any amount or value from any person or business that has a relationship with the Agency;
- Accepting personal cash gifts of any amount from any person or business that has a relationship with the Agency;
- Accepting personal non-cash gifts valued at more than $50 from any person or business which has a financial relationship with the Agency, or accepting any non-cash gift from a person or business that expects that they receive preferred services or business from the Agency representative or the Agency.

The above list is not all inclusive. Agency representatives are expected to exercise good judgment and be mindful of how their personal relationships and outside activities may be affecting the workplace.

Before engaging in any activity, transaction or relationship that might give rise to a conflict of interest, and if any matter exists that might be a conflict of interest or creates the appearance of a conflict of interest, representatives must seek review from their manager, agency business contact, or the Human Resource department. Employees with a conflict-of-interest question should seek advice from the Human Resources Department.

1. For Mill Neck Staff

Mill Neck has adopted and will advise its staff of the following policies:

Mill Neck staff is not permitted to enter into private agreements with existing Mill Neck participants and their families or other associates. Employment relationships, barter agreements and other exchanges of services are all strictly prohibited. Staff must respectfully decline such requests and report such requests immediately to their supervisor.

This policy applies to all of the following services: Interpreting, Residential Habilitation, Community Habilitation, Counseling/Therapy, Employment Services, Respite or any other privately requested service.

Entering into private agreements creates a conflict of interest, confuses the participants and their families, undermines the agency's work and mission and will result in job termination.

If a participant or their family requests that staff provide private services, staff must explain that this is against policy and direct the participant or family members to their supervisor. Mill Neck will, in turn, arrange for services with the participant and/or family member through existing departments, if the request is deemed appropriate.

f. Adhere to the Agency Media Communication Policy

It is the agency's policy to provide open, accurate, and consistent communication with the public. To maintain the consistency and accuracy of the information, agency spokespersons are designated to respond to all inquiries. Only these designated spokespersons are authorized and responsible for releasing information at the appropriate time and for guarding against the inadvertent disclosure of confidential information. All inquiries regarding the Media Communication Policy should be directed to the Marketing Department or Executive Director.

g. Quality of Care

Mill Neck has adopted the following standards and will advise all representatives that they are expected to comply with these standards:

1. Refrain from Abuse

Agency representatives shall not engage in any activities that constitute abuse of persons receiving services as defined in the regulations of the Commissioner of the NYS Office of Mental Retardation/Developmental Disabilities (OMRDD). Failure to exercise one's duty to intercede or to report any activity which may be considered abuse will constitute abuse.

2. Follow a Participant's Service Plan

Agency employees and staff are expected to comply with a participant's service plan and communicate any changes in the plan to the necessary parties in accordance with regulatory requirements and program policies and procedures.

It is not acceptable for participants to carry out the duties of employees unless such tasks are described in their plan of services by their program planning team and for the purpose of increasing their skills.

3. Maintain Appropriate Interactions with Participants

Agency representatives must maintain professional relationships with the participants they serve. There shall be no personal financial transactions between agency representatives and participants or their family/responsible party. Financial transactions, which may be construed as exploitation or result in greater benefit to the employee or agency representative than the person receiving services will be considered abuse.

The receipt of any personal gift by any agency representative from any consumer receiving services or their family member/responsible party is discouraged and needs to be avoided. Depending on the circumstances a gift of nominal value ($50.00 or less) may be allowed. Any gift must be disclosed to the supervisor to determine whether the gift may or may not be accepted to avoid a conflict of interest. Should a family member/responsible party be interested in donating to the agency they should contact the Marketing Department.

All agency representatives are expected to maintain a professional demeanor with participants. It is also expected that employees shall model appropriate and acceptable behavior while in the presence of participants.

4. Safeguard Participants Privacy

Agency representatives shall treat all participant and program information as confidential and utilize such information in a professional manner at all times. Access to participant information must be limited to the extent permitted by the agency policies and procedure pursuant to state and federal law. In addition, release of information pertaining to HIV/AIDS is subject to additional regulatory requirements and should not be released without proper authorization from the Executive Director.

Any Mill Neck representative who engages in unauthorized disclosure, access to, or misuse of information in violation of the privacy rights of our participants, or others may be subject to disciplinary action in addition to civil or criminal sanctions. Any Mill Neck representative who becomes aware of such unauthorized disclosure should immediately report this to their supervisor, Executive Director or Corporate Compliance Officer.

h. Medical Practices

Mill Neck has adopted the following standards and will advise all representatives that they are expected to comply with these standards:

1. Follow Regulations Regarding Control of Medications

It is the agency policy that all Mill Neck representatives shall be diligent in discharging their obligations regarding prescription drugs and controlled substances in accordance with applicable laws, regulations and agency policies and procedures.

The agency is legally responsible for the proper distribution, handling of and prevention of unauthorized access to pharmaceutical products. The diversion of any prescription drug or controlled substance, including a drug sample, in any amount for any reason to an unauthorized individual or entity is forbidden.

Mill Neck representatives may not use drugs stored in agency programs intended for the use of participants.

i. Legal Obligations & Compliance

Mill Neck has adopted the following standards and will advise all representatives that they are expected to comply with these standards:

1. To Maintain a Safe and Healthful Workplace

The agency has a commitment to maintain a safe and healthful workplace for agency representatives and people receiving services. As part of this commitment, the agency maintains reasonable safety rules, practices and procedures for all employees. At the same time, the agency expects employees and staff to be efficient and productive in performing their job assignments.

The agency provides a safe and healthy work environment by adhering to the laws, regulations and commonly accepted safe practices in accordance with federal and state laws regarding occupational and environmental safety. Laws and policies regarding hazardous materials, pollutants and medical waste must be strictly followed by Mill Neck representatives.

2. Refrain from Misrepresentation

Honesty based on clear communication is the cornerstone of ethical disclosure of information. The agency and representatives shall be honest and make no representation or dishonest statements in conducting agency business affairs. Representatives must report and record all information accurately and honestly including all marketing materials, participants' records, and requests for payment, time sheets, financial reports and other similar documents, which relate to business activities. Marketing materials will accurately reflect certification, licensure and services available.

In addition, representatives must not make false statements with respect to the condition or operations of any program nor make false statements with respect to information regarding ownership and control of a facility or program.

3. Refrain from Engaging in Unfair Trade Practices

All agency representatives are expected to comply with all laws pertaining to the restraint of trade and fair competition. Such laws generally forbid any kind of understanding or agreement (written or verbal) between competitors to fix and control fees or payments for services or products, or to engage in any other conduct that results in restraints of competition.

Unfair methods of competition and deceptive acts or practices are also prohibited. Examples of these include false or deceptive statements or comparisons about agencies services or falsely disparaging competitor's services without data to substantiate it.

4. Adhere to Tax-Exempt Requirements

The Agency is a tax-exempt entity under the rules and laws of New York State and the Federal Internal Revenue Service. In order to comply with applicable law, the Agency must operate for the benefit of the community and avoid "private inurement" or "private benefit" as defined by these laws. Criminal penalties may be exercised if a violation of these tax laws is found and substantiated. In this regard, Mill Neck representatives shall be familiar with these restrictions:

- The agency sales tax exemption is used only for legitimate agency business and service transactions.

A kickback or bribe may be defined as any money, fee, commission, credit, gift, and gratuity, thing of value or compensation of any kind that is provided directly or indirectly, and that has as one of its purposes, the improper obtaining or rewarding or favorable treatment in a business transaction.

No representative shall solicit, receive, offer to pay, or pay remuneration of any kind in return for referring an individual for items or services, or purchasing, leasing, ordering or arranging for goods, facilities, services or items for which payment may be made under federal, state, or local health care programs.

All representatives should avoid the offering or receipt of a gift in circumstances where it could appear that the purpose of the gift is to influence the agency's relationship with a vendor, regulator or other person or entity. The receipt of any gift by any agency representative from a consumer's representative, vendor, contractor, etc. must be disclosed to the supervisor to determine whether the gift may or may not be accepted to avoid a conflict of interest.

8. Be Familiar with Regulations Governing Areas of Responsibility

The agency is licensed by a number of regulatory and accreditation organizations. Representatives are responsible for the compliance with these licenses as more fully set forth below:

Employee Classification Categories

All employees are designated as either nonexempt or exempt under state and federal wage and hour laws. The following is intended to help employees understand employment classifications and employees' employment status and benefit eligibility. These classifications do not guarantee employment for any specified period of time. The right to terminate the employment-at-will relationship at any time is retained by both the employee and Mill Neck Family of Organizations. All new staff is subject to a six-month probationary period. There may be times where Mill Neck will exercise their right to extend the probationary period.

Nonexempt employees are employees whose work is covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). They are NOT exempt from the law's requirements concerning minimum wage and overtime.

Exempt employees are generally managers or professional, administrative or technical staff who ARE exempt from the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the FLSA. Exempt employees hold jobs that meet the standards and criteria established under the FLSA by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations has established the following categories for both nonexempt and exempt employees:

- Regular, full time: Employees who are not in a temporary status and who are regularly scheduled to work the company's full-time schedule of 40 hours per week. They are paid an annual salary determined by the Superintendent, President of Foundation, or Executive Director of Mill Neck Services and are entitled to full benefits.
- Regular, part time: Employees who are not in a temporary status and who are regularly scheduled to work less than the full-time schedule but at least 23 hours each week. Regular, part-time employees are eligible for some of the benefits offered by the company subject to the terms, conditions and limitations of each benefits program.
- Temporary, Employees who are hired as interim replacements to temporarily supplement the workforce or to assist in the completion of a specific project and who are temporarily scheduled to work the company's full-time schedule for a limited duration. Employment beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Employees are paid an hourly wage and are not entitled to benefits.
- Probationary, Employees who are hired in full-time or regular part-time positions will be entitled to benefits after 90 days of employment.

Background and Reference Checks

To ensure that individuals who join Mill Neck Family of Organizations are well qualified and to ensure that Mill Neck maintains a safe and productive work environment, it is our policy to conduct pre-employment background checks on all applicants who accept an offer of employment. Background checks may include verification of any information on the applicant's resume or application form.

All offers of employment are conditioned on receipt of a background check report that is acceptable to Mill Neck Family of Organizations. All background checks are conducted in conformity with the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, Medicaid Compliance, NY State Justice Center, and state and federal privacy and antidiscrimination laws. Reports are kept confidential and are only viewed by individuals involved in the hiring process.

If information obtained in a background check would lead Mill Neck Family of Organizations to deny employment, a copy of the report will be provided to the applicant, and the applicant will have the opportunity to dispute the report's accuracy. Background checks may include a criminal record check, although a criminal conviction does not automatically bar an applicant from employment. However, falsification of information concerning oneself in an application for employment or background check authorization form will be grounds for denial of the application or termination of employment upon discovery of the falsification.

Additional checks, such as a driving record or credit report, may be made on applicants for particular job categories if appropriate and job related.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations also reserves the right to conduct a background check for current employees to determine eligibility for promotion or reassignment in the same manner as described above.

Internal Transfers/Promotions

Employees with more than twelve months of service may request consideration to transfer to other jobs as vacancies become available and will be considered along with other applicants. At the same time, the company may initiate transfers of employees between departments and facilities to meet specified work requirements and reassignment of work requirements.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations offers employees promotions to higher-level positions when appropriate. Management prefers to promote from within and may first consider current employees with the necessary qualifications and skills to fill vacancies above the entry level, unless outside recruitment is considered to be in the company's best interest.

To be considered, employees must have held their current position for at least 12 months, have a satisfactory performance record and have no disciplinary actions during the last 12 months. Management retains the discretion to make exceptions to the policy.

All staff who receives a transfer/promotion is subject to a new six months probationary period. There may be times where Mill Neck will exercise their right to extend the probationary period.

Nepotism, Employment of Relatives and Personal Relationships

Mill Neck Family of Organizations wants to ensure that corporate practices do not create situations such as conflict of interest or favoritism. This extends to practices that involve employee hiring, promotion and transfer. Close relatives, partners, those in a dating relationship or members of the same household are not permitted to be in positions that have a reporting responsibility to each other. Close relatives are defined as husband, wife, domestic partner, father, mother, father-in-law, mother-in law, grandfather, grandmother, son, son-in-law, daughter, daughter-in law, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, step relatives, cousins and domestic partner relatives.

If an employee begins a dating relationship or become relatives, partners or members of the same household, and if one party is in a supervisory position, that person is required to inform management and Human Resources of the relationship.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations reserves the right to apply this policy to situations where there is a conflict or the potential for conflict because of the relationship between employees, even if there is no direct-reporting relationship or authority involved.

Open Door Policy

Employees are invited to bring questions, suggestions, and problems to the appropriate individuals' attention. Careful consideration will be given to each of them in our continuing effort to improve Mill Neck.

Present questions, suggestions and problems to the employee's immediate supervisor, or if more appropriate, to the Human Resource Director so the problem can be resolved quickly. Past situations have shown that most problems can be settled by a simple examination and discussion of facts.

Every opportunity to discuss concerns will be made available and it is Mill Neck's goal to treat each situation fairly.

Progressive Discipline

Every employee has the duty and the responsibility to be aware of and abide by existing rules and policies. Employees also have the responsibility to perform his/her duties to the best of his/her ability and to the standards as set forth in his/her job description or as otherwise established.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations supports the use of progressive discipline to address issues such as poor work performance or misconduct. Our progressive discipline policy is designed to provide a corrective action process to improve and prevent a recurrence of undesirable behavior and/or performance issues. Our progressive discipline policy has been designed consistent with our organizational values, HR best practices and employment laws.

Outlined below are the steps of our progressive discipline policy and procedure. Mill Neck Family of Organizations reserves the right to combine or skip steps in this process depending on the facts of each situation and the nature of the offense. The level of disciplinary intervention may also vary. Some of the factors that will be considered are whether the offense is repeated despite coaching, counseling and/or training; the employee's work record; and the impact the conduct and performance issues have on our organization.

The following outlines Mill Neck Family of Organizations' progressive discipline process:

- Verbal warning: A supervisor verbally counsels an employee about an issue of concern, and a written record of the discussion is placed in the employee's file for future reference.
- Written warning: Written warnings are used for behavior or violations that a supervisor considers serious or in situations when a verbal warning has not helped change unacceptable behavior. Written warnings are placed in an employee's personnel file. Employees should recognize the grave nature of the written warning.
- Performance improvement plan: Whenever an employee has been involved in a disciplinary situation that has not been readily resolved or when he/she has demonstrated an inability to perform assigned work responsibilities efficiently, the employee may be given a final warning or placed on a performance improvement plan (PIP). PIP status will last for a predetermined amount of time not to exceed 180 days. Within this time period, the employee must demonstrate a willingness and ability to meet and maintain the conduct and/or work requirements as specified by the supervisor and the organization. At the end of the performance improvement period, the performance improvement plan may be closed or, if established goals are not met, dismissal may occur.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations reserves the right to determine the appropriate level of discipline for any inappropriate conduct, including oral and written warnings, suspension with or without pay, demotion and discharge.

Separation of Employment

Separation of employment within an organization can occur for several different reasons.

- Resignation: Although we hope your employment with us will be a mutually rewarding experience, we understand that varying circumstances cause employees to voluntarily resign employment. Resigning employees are encouraged to provide two weeks' notice, preferably in writing, to facilitate a smooth transition out of the organization. Management reserves the right to provide an employee with two weeks' pay in lieu of notice in situations where job or business needs warrant such action. If an employee provides less notice than requested, the employer may deem the individual to be ineligible for rehire, depending on the circumstances regarding the notice given.
- Retirement: Employees who wish to retire are required to notify their department director and the Human Resource department in writing at least one (1) month before the planned retirement date.
- Job abandonment: Employees who fail to report to work or contact their supervisor for three (3) consecutive workdays shall be considered to have abandoned the job without notice, effective at the end of their normal shift on the third day. The supervisor shall notify the Human Resource department at the expiration of the third workday and initiate the paperwork to terminate the employee. Employees who are separated due to job abandonment are ineligible to receive accrued benefits and are ineligible for rehire.
- Termination: Employees of Mill Neck Family of Organizations are employed on an at-will basis, and the company retains the right to terminate an employee at any time.

Return of Company Property

The separating employee must return all company property at the time of separation, including uniforms, cell phones, keys, PCs and identification cards. Failure to return some items may result in deductions from the final paycheck.

The separating employee shall contact the Human Resource department as soon as notice is given to schedule an exit interview. The interview will be on the employee's last day of work or another day, as mutually agreed on.

Accrued vacation leave (up to 30 days) will be paid in the last paycheck unless the employee resigned and did not give and work a full two weeks' notice.

Health insurance terminates the last day of the month of employment, unless an employee requests immediate termination of benefits. Information for Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation (COBRA) continued health coverage will be provided. Employees will be required to pay their share of the dependent health and dental premiums through the end of the month.

Rehire

Former employees who left Mill Neck Family of Organizations in good standing and were classified as eligible for rehire may be considered for reemployment. An application must be submitted to the Human Resource department, and the applicant must meet all minimum qualifications and requirements of the position, including any qualifying exam, when required.

Supervisors must obtain approval from the Human Resource director or designee prior to rehiring a former employee. Rehired employees begin benefits just as any other new employee. Previous tenure will not be considered in calculating longevity, leave accruals or any other benefits.

An applicant or employee who is terminated for violating policy, or who resigned in lieu of termination from employment due to a policy violation, will be ineligible for rehire.

Arbitration

Because of the delay and expense of the court systems, Mill Neck Family of Organizations and its employees agree to use confidential binding arbitration, instead of going to court, for any claims that arise between employees and Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf, Mill Neck Foundation and Mill Neck Services, its related companies, and/or their current or former employees. Without limitation, such claims would include any concerning compensation, employment discrimination (including, but not limited to, any claims concerning sexual harassment or discrimination), or termination of employment. Before arbitration, the employees agree 1) first to present such claims in full written detail to Mill Neck, 2) next to complete any Mill Neck's internal review process; and 3) finally to complete any external administrative remedy (such as with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission). In any arbitration, the then prevailing employment dispute resolution rules of the American Arbitration Association will apply, except that Mill Neck will pay the arbitration fees, and Mill Neck Companies will pay the portion of the arbitration filing fee in excess of the similar court filing fee had the employees gone to court.

In the event it is determined for any reason that the commitment to arbitrate cannot be given effect in a particular case, and the case must be resolved in court, the Mill Neck Family of Organizations' and the employee both waive any right to trial by jury as to any claims between the employee and the Mill Neck Family of Organizations.

WORKPLACE SAFETY

Drug-Free Workplace

Mill Neck Family of Organizations has a longstanding commitment to provide a safe and productive work environment. Alcohol and drug abuse pose a threat to the health and safety of employees and to the security of our equipment and facilities. For these reasons, Mill Neck is committed to the elimination of drug and/or alcohol use and abuse in the workplace.

This policy outlines the practice and procedure designed to correct instances of identified alcohol and/or drug use in the workplace. This policy applies to all employees and all applicants for employment of Mill Neck Family of Organizations. The Human Resource department is responsible for policy administration.

Employee Assistance and Drug-Free Awareness

Illegal drug use and alcohol misuse have a number of adverse health and safety consequences. Information about those consequences and sources of help for drug/alcohol problems are available from the Human Resource department.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations will assist and support employees who voluntarily seek help for such problems before becoming subject to discipline and/or termination under this or other policies. Such employees may be allowed to use accrued paid time off, placed on leaves of absence, referred to treatment providers and otherwise accommodated as required by law. Such employees may be required to document that they are successfully following prescribed treatment and to take and pass follow-up tests if they hold jobs that are safety sensitive or that require driving or if they have violated this policy previously.

Employees should report to work fit for duty and free of any adverse effects of illegal drugs or alcohol. This policy does not prohibit employees from the lawful use and possession of prescribed medications. Employees must, however, consult with their doctors about the medications' effect on their fitness for duty and ability to work safely and promptly disclose any work restrictions to their supervisor. Employees should not, however, disclose underlying medical conditions unless directed to do so.

Work Rules

The following work rules apply to all employees:

- Whenever employees are working, are operating any company vehicle, are present on company premises, or are conducting related work off-site, they are prohibited from:
 - Using, possessing, buying, selling, manufacturing or dispensing an illegal drug (to include possession of drug paraphernalia);
 - Being under the influence of alcohol or an illegal drug as defined in this policy.
- The presence of any detectable amount of any illegal drug or illegal controlled substance in an employee's body while performing company business or while in a company facility is prohibited.
- Mill Neck Family of Organizations will not allow any employees to perform their duties while taking prescribed drugs that are adversely affecting the employees' ability to safely and effectively perform their job duties. Employees taking a prescribed medication must carry it in the container labeled by a licensed pharmacist or be prepared to produce it if asked.

- Any illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia will be turned over to an appropriate law enforcement agency and may result in criminal prosecution.

Required Testing

The company retains the right to require the following tests:

- Reasonable suspicion: Employees are subject to testing based on observations by a supervisor of apparent workplace use, possession or impairment. Human Resources must be consulted before sending an employee for reasonable suspicion testing.
- Post-accident: Employees are subject to testing when they cause or contribute to accidents that seriously damage a company vehicle, machinery, equipment or property and/or result in an injury to themselves or another employee requiring off-site medical attention. In any of these instances, the investigation and subsequent testing must take place within two (2) hours following the accident, if not sooner.
- Follow-up: Employees who have tested positive, or otherwise violated this policy, are subject to discipline up to and including discharge. Depending on the circumstances and the employee's work history/record, Mill Neck Family of Organizations may offer an employee who violates this policy or tests positive the opportunity to return to work on a last-chance basis pursuant to mutually agreeable terms, which could include follow-up drug testing at times and frequencies for a minimum of one (1) year but not more than two (2) years. If the employee either does not complete his/her rehabilitation program or tests positive after completing the rehabilitation program, he/she will be subject to immediate discharge from employment.

Consequences

Employees who refuse to cooperate in required tests, or who use, possess, buy, sell, manufacture or dispense an illegal drug in violation of this policy, will be terminated.

The first time an employee tests positive for alcohol or illegal drug use under this policy, the result will be discipline up to and including discharge.

Employees will be paid for time spent in alcohol/drug testing and then suspended pending the results of the drug/alcohol test. After the results of the test are received, a date/time will be scheduled to discuss the results of the test; this meeting will include a member of management and Human Resources. Should the results prove to be negative, the employee will receive back pay for the times/days of suspension.

Confidentiality

Information and records relating to positive test results, drug and alcohol dependencies and legitimate medical explanations provided to the medical review officer (MRO) shall be kept confidential to the extent required by law and maintained in secure files separate from normal personnel files.

Inspections

Mill Neck Family of Organizations reserves the right to inspect all portions of its premises for drugs, alcohol or other contraband. All employees, contract employees and visitors may be asked to cooperate in inspections of their persons, work areas and property that might conceal a drug, alcohol or other contraband. Employees who possess such contraband, or refuse to cooperate in such inspections, are subject to appropriate discipline up to and including discharge.

Crimes Involving Drugs

Mill Neck Family of Organizations prohibits all employees from manufacturing, distributing, dispensing, possessing or using an illegal drug in or on company premises or while conducting company business. Employees are also prohibited from misusing legally prescribed or over-the-counter (OTC) drugs. Law enforcement personnel shall be notified, as appropriate, when criminal activity is suspected.

Ethical Personal Conduct

Ethical personal conduct on the job means treating oneself and others with respect and fairness. Workplace harassment includes both sexual harassment and harassment in a more general nature. Sexual harassment includes both quid pro quo and hostile work scenarios. Other forms of harassment include unwelcome or unwanted attention or discrimination conduct based on an individual's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, gender, sexual preference, marital status, age, and/or disability. Examples of harassment include, but are not limited to inappropriate jokes, offensive body language such as finger pointing, or offensive materials such as sexually explicit pictures. It can include verbal, nonverbal or physical abuse. Something considered harmless by one individual may be perceived as harassment by another. The agency expects all employees to conduct themselves in a manner appropriate to the workplace and to keep all work environments free of harassment.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations defines bullying as "repeated inappropriate behavior, either direct or indirect, whether verbal, physical or otherwise, conducted by one or more persons against another or others, at the place of work and/or in the course of employment." Such behavior violates the company Code of Ethics, which clearly states that all employees will be treated with dignity and respect.

The purpose of this policy is to communicate to all employees, including supervisors, managers and executives, that the company will not tolerate bullying behavior. Employees found in violation of this policy will be disciplined up to and including termination.

Bullying may be intentional or unintentional. However, it must be noted that where an allegation of bullying is made, the intention of the alleged bully is irrelevant and will not be given consideration when meting out discipline. As in sexual harassment, it is the effect of the behavior upon the individual that is important. Mill Neck Family of Organizations considers the following types of behavior examples of bullying:

- Bullying verbally or in sign language: Slandering, ridiculing or maligning a person or his/her family; persistent name calling that is hurtful, insulting or humiliating; using a person as the butt of jokes; abusive and offensive remarks.
- Physical bullying: Pushing, shoving, kicking, poking, tripping, assault or threat of physical assault; damage to a person's work area or property.
- Gesture bullying: Nonverbal threatening gestures or glances that convey threatening messages.
- Exclusion: Socially or physically excluding or disregarding a person in work-related activities.

Violence in the Workplace

All employees, customers, vendors and business associates must be treated with courtesy and respect at all times. Employees are expected to refrain from conduct that may be dangerous to others.

Conduct that threatens intimidates or coerces another employee, customer, vendor or business associate will not be tolerated. Mill Neck Family of Organizations resources may not be used to threaten, stalk or harass anyone at the workplace or outside the workplace. Mill Neck Family of Organizations treats threats coming from an abusive personal relationship as it does other forms of violence.

Indirect or direct threats of violence, incidents of actual violence and suspicious individuals or activities should be reported as soon as possible to a supervisor, security personnel, Human Resources, or any member of senior management. When reporting a threat or incident of violence, the employee should be as specific and detailed as possible. Employees should not place themselves in peril, nor should they attempt to intercede during an incident.

Employees should promptly inform the Human Resource department of any protective or restraining order that they have obtained that lists the workplace as a protected area. Employees are encouraged to report safety concerns with regard to intimate partner violence. Mill Neck Family of Organizations will not retaliate against employees making good-faith reports. Mill Neck is committed to supporting victims of intimate partner violence by providing referrals to Mill Neck Family of Organizations' employee assistance program (EAP) and community resources and providing time off for reasons related to intimate partner violence.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations will promptly and thoroughly investigate all reports of threats of violence or incidents of actual violence and of suspicious individuals or activities. The identity of the individual making a report will be protected as much as possible. Mill Neck Family of Organizations will not retaliate against employees making good-faith reports of violence, threats or suspicious individuals or activities. In order to maintain workplace safety and the integrity of its investigation, Mill Neck Family of Organizations may suspend employees suspected of workplace violence or threats of violence, either with or without pay, pending investigation.

Anyone found to be responsible for threats of, or actual violence, or other conduct that is in violation of these guidelines, will be subject to prompt disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations encourages employees to bring their disputes to the attention of their supervisors or Human Resources before the situation escalates. Mill Neck Family of Organizations will not discipline employees for raising such concerns.

Safety

It is the responsibility of each employee to conduct all tasks in a safe and efficient manner complying with all local, state and federal safety and health regulations and program standards, and with any special safety concerns for use in a particular area or with a client.

Although most safety regulations are consistent throughout each department and program, each employee has the responsibility to identify and familiarize her/himself with the emergency plan for his/her working area. Each facility shall have posted an emergency plan detailing procedures in handling emergencies such as fire, weather-related events and medical crises.

It is the responsibility of the employee to complete an Accident and Incident Report for each safety and health infraction that occurs by an employee or that the employee witnesses. Failure to report such an infraction may result in employee disciplinary action, including termination.

Furthermore, management requires that every person in the organization assumes the responsibility of individual and organizational safety. Failure to follow company safety and health guidelines or engaging in conduct that places the employee, client or company property at risk can lead to employee disciplinary action and/or termination.

The Health and Safety Committee and the safety director shall have the responsibility to develop, and the authority to implement the safety and health program in the interest of a safer work environment.

Accident Management and Reporting

In case of an accident involving a staff member, notify the nurse immediately at Ext. 233. If the nurse cannot be located, call the main switchboard at Ext. 0. DO NOT MOVE THE INJURED PERSON.

In the event of a severe accident in which emergency treatment is required, call for an ambulance immediately.

Complete all necessary written reports for the office as soon as possible following the accident. Forms may be obtained from the secretaries or personnel department. Please submit the completed form to Personnel or to the Business Office.

Delays in filing claims may result in loss of payment. It is ultimately the individual staff member's responsibility to notify the Personnel Office promptly.

Smoke-Free Workplace

It is the policy of Mill Neck Family of Organizations to prohibit smoking on all company premises in order to provide and maintain a safe and healthy work environment for all employees. The law defines smoking as the "act of lighting, smoking or carrying a lighted or smoldering cigar, cigarette, e-cigarette or pipe of any kind."

Due to the risk of motor vehicle accidents resulting from traffic congestion, unsafe driving habits, road conditions and distraction, Mill Neck is instituting a safety driving policy and rules. This safety policy applies to all employees who operate a motor vehicle on school/agency business and/or school/agency time, whether operating a company vehicle or personal vehicle.

All staff receiving tickets – either moving violations, parking or passing a red light, will be expected to pay for the fine themselves. Should we become aware of a repeated issue, staff will be prohibited from driving any school/agency vehicles.
12. Mill Neck Manor will review motor vehicle reports annually.
13. If an employee has a change in license status, including a renewal, he or she must give a copy of his or her new license to the supervisor for the employee's file.

Safety Rules Enforcement

Employees will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination for violating any of the above rules.

Accidents

Any employee who is involved in an accident while driving for company purposes will be required to complete an accident report. You must obtain license, registration and insurance information from the other party. He or she must return the report to his or her supervisor on the same day to review the information to make sure it is complete. You must obtain a copy of the accident report from the Police Department and submit it to your immediate supervisor. The employee may be required to go for a post-accident drug and alcohol analysis at a designated facility. The employee may also be required to discuss the accident with Human Resources.

Management will review all accidents and determine whether they were preventable or non-preventable. A preventable accident is defined as an accident in which the driver failed to do everything reasonably possible to prevent it from occurring.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations' Media Communication Policy

Mill Neck Family of Organizations' policy is to provide open, accurate, and consistent communication with the public. To maintain the consistency and accuracy of the information, agency spokespersons are designated to respond to all inquiries. Only these designated spokespersons are authorized and responsible for releasing information at the appropriate time and for guarding against the inadvertent disclosure of confidential information. All inquiries regarding the Media Communication Policy should be directed to the Director of Advancement or the Superintendent of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and Early Childhood Center, President of the Foundation, and Executive Director of Mill Neck Services.

Conflicts of Interest Policy

The goal of Mill Neck Family of Organizations is to avoid, where possible, even the appearance of impropriety by avoiding Conflicts of Interest. Therefore, it has adopted the following guidelines related to Conflicts of Interest and Related Party Transactions...

Definition of Conflict Of Interest

A Conflict of Interest arises whenever the personal or professional interest of a Board Member, employee, or consultant is or may be at odds with the best interests of Mill Neck Family of Organizations. A related party transaction exists when there is a transaction between Mill Neck Family of Organizations and one or more of its directors or officers or any other corporation, firm, association or other entity in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers or have a substantial financial interest. A related party transaction is always a Conflict of Interest under this policy, but a Conflict of Interest is not necessarily limited to related party transactions.

Employees must avoid any relationship or activity that might impair, or even appear to impair, their ability to make objective and fair decisions when performing their jobs. At times, an employee may be faced with situations in which business actions taken on behalf of Mill Neck Family of Organizations may conflict with the employee's own personal interests. Company property, information or business opportunities may not be used for personal gain.

Conflicts of interest could arise in the following circumstances:

- Being employed by, or acting as a consultant to, a competitor or potential competitor, supplier or contractor, regardless of the nature of the employment, while employed with Mill Neck Family of Organizations.
- Hiring or supervising family members or closely related persons.
- Romantic relationships between supervisor and a subordinate.
- Using agency assets, including agency time, name, information equipment or facilities for personal use.
- Misuse of information obtained by an employee during the course of his or her employment.
- Soliciting personal cash or non-cash gifts of any amount or value from any person or business that has a relationship with the Agency.
- Serving as a board member for an outside commercial company or organization that has a business relationship with Mill Neck Family of Organizations.
- Owning or having a substantial interest in a competitor, supplier or contractor.
- Accepting gifts, discounts, favors or services from a customer/potential customer, competitor or supplier with a value greater than $50.00, unless equally available to all company employees.

The above list is not all inclusive. Employees with a conflict-of-interest question should seek advice from management. Before engaging in any activity, transaction or relationship that might give rise to a conflict of interest, employees must seek review from their manager or the Human Resource department.

Procedure for Disclosing a Conflict of Interest

Disclosure will be made immediately upon recognizing a conflict of interest, related party transaction, or the potential for either. Staff members and consultants may disclose Conflicts of Interest or related party transactions to the Superintendent of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and Early Childhood Center, President of the Foundation, and Executive Director of Mill Neck Services, who shall immediately report the disclosure to the Chairman of the Board. Disclosure can be made in writing which describes the material facts related to the conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest.

For Mill Neck Services Staff

Mill Neck Services policy states that staff/employees of Mill Neck Services are not permitted to enter into private agreements with existing Mill Neck consumers and their families or other associates. Employment relationships, barter agreements or other exchanges of services are all strictly prohibited. Staff must respectfully decline such requests and report such requests immediately to their supervisor.

This policy applies to all of the following services: Interpreting, Residential Habilitation, Community Habilitation, Counseling/Therapy, Employment Services, Respite or any other privately requested service.

Entering into private agreements creates a conflict of interest, confuses the consumers and their families, undermines the agency's work and mission and will result in job termination.

If a consumer or their family requests that staff provide private services, staff must explain that this is against policy and direct the consumer or family members to their supervisor. Mill Neck Service will, in turn, arrange for services with the consumer and/or family member through existing departments, if the request is deemed appropriate.

Mill Neck's Gift Acceptance Policy

We know that during the holidays, families often show their appreciation to staff by giving token gifts. Please note, Mill Neck discourages gifts whose value is $50.00 or more. It is the agency's policy that all staff should refrain from accepting gifts or money from a student/consumer at any time.

If a student/consumer has approached you with such an offer, and you are unsure how to handle it, you are to contact your supervisor. Students/consumers may offer money gifts to show their appreciation for the services you provide to them. If a staff member were to accept money from a student/consumer, the professional/participant relationship is altered. To avoid misinterpretation, and even the appearance of conflict of interest, please refrain from accepting money/gifts from students and consumers.

Mill Neck's Whistleblower Policy

Mill Neck Family of Organizations requires directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of Mill Neck Family of Organizations, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities, and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. This whistleblower policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns about the Mill Neck Family of Organizations, prior to seeking resolution outside the Mill Neck Family of Organizations.

Reporting Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all directors, officers and employees to report wrongful conduct or suspected fraud in accordance with this whistleblower policy.

Wrongful Conduct

"Wrongful Conduct" is described in this whistleblower policy to include: a serious violation of Mill Neck Family of Organizations' policy; a violation of local, state or federal law; the fraudulent use of organization property, resources or authority for personal gain or other non-organization-related purpose, except as allowed by organization policy.

The definition of wrongful conduct is not intended to be an exclusive listing of the illegal or improper activity encompassed by the whistleblower policy. Rather, the whistleblower policy is intended to serve as a means of reporting all serious improprieties that potentially impact the integrity and effective operation of Mill Neck Family of Organizations.

Reporting Violations

Mill Neck Family of Organizations suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, an employee's supervisor is in the best position to address an area of concern. However, if you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor or you are not satisfied with your supervisor's response, you are encouraged to speak with the Human Resource Director, or anyone in management whom you are comfortable in approaching. Supervisors and managers are required to report suspected fraudulent activity to the Mill Neck Family of Organizations' Compliance Officer, who has specific and exclusive responsibility to investigate all reported violations. For suspected fraudulent activity, employees should contact the Compliance Officer directly.

No Retaliation

No director, officer or employee, who in good faith reports a wrongful act or fraudulent activity, shall suffer intimidation, harassment, discrimination, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. Any director, officer or employee who intimidates, harasses, discriminates, or retaliates against anyone who has reported wrongful conduct in good faith is subject to disciplinary action, up to, and including termination of employment.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone reporting wrongful conduct under this policy must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing that the information disclosed indicates a fraudulent or wrongful act. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense which can lead to termination of employment.

Confidentiality

Reports of suspected fraud or wrongful conduct may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. These reports will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Handling of Reported Violations

The Compliance Officer, or the Superintendent of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and Early Childhood Center, President of the Foundation, and Executive Director of Mill Neck Services, in the event of non-fraud violations, will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the reported suspected wrongful conduct within five business days, unless the report is made anonymously. All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action; will be taken if warranted by the investigation.

Compliance Officer

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations Compliance Officer is responsible for investigating and resolving all reported complaints and allegations concerning suspected fraud and, at his/her discretion, shall advise the President and/or the Audit Committee. The Compliance Officer is a member of the Board's Audit Committee, and is required to report to the Audit Committee at least annually on compliance activity.

Outside Employment

Employees are permitted to engage in outside work or to hold other jobs, subject to certain restrictions as outlined below.

Activities and conduct away from the job must not compete with, conflict with or compromise the company interests or adversely affect job performance and the ability to fulfill all job responsibilities. Employees are prohibited from performing any services for customers on nonworking time that are normally performed by Mill Neck Family of Organizations. This prohibition also extends to the unauthorized use of any company tools or equipment and the unauthorized use or application of any confidential information. In addition, employees are not to solicit or conduct any outside business during paid working time.

Employees are cautioned to carefully consider the demands that additional work activity will create before accepting outside employment. Outside employment will not be considered an excuse for poor job performance, absenteeism, tardiness, leaving early, refusal to travel or refusal to work overtime or different hours. If Mill Neck Family of Organizations determines that an employee's outside work interferes with performance, the employee may be asked to terminate the outside employment.

Employees who have accepted outside employment may not use paid sick leave to work on the outside job. Fraudulent use of sick leave will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Mill Neck emphasizes the need for balance between work, personal and family life, and encourages employees to pursue interests and activities outside the workplace. Personal interests and beliefs, however, must not be imposed on other employees or consumers. The agency recognizes the employee's rights to become involved in political/religious activities of their choice. However, activities should not interfere with the employee's ability to perform their job and should not imply participation on the part of the agency.

Campus Hours for Administration and Foundation Staff

There are many jobs at Mill Neck Family of Organizations requiring varying hours of work. An employee's work schedule will depend on the job classification and the particular job within that classification.

All employees are required to use the time clocks, and all employees are responsible for their own swipe cards. Cards should be swiped upon arrival and departure each workday, including any pre-approved overtime. Employees are not permitted to swipe in/commence work before their normal starting time or to swipe out/continue work after their normal quitting time, without prior approval.

No employee may swipe in/out for any other employee. The information on the attendance record provides the basis for payroll and benefit calculations. Therefore, accuracy is of the utmost importance.

Continued patterns of not swiping in/out will be an indication to the Administration that you are either late for your assignment or leaving your assignment early. Failure to follow procedures can and will lead to serious disciplinary actions, including termination. Falsification of time records is grounds for immediate dismissal.

The campus is closed and inaccessible from 6:00 pm to 6:00 am each weekday.

All faculty and staff (with the exception of the maintenance and night time cleaning crew) are to complete their activities and leave the campus no later than 6:00 pm. Campus security secures all buildings at that time, and access to the campus and its buildings will be prohibited thereafter, except for scheduled events. Prior written permission from the office of the Superintendent of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf and Early Childhood Center, President of the Foundation, and Executive Director of Mill Neck Services is required for access to the campus after 6:00 pm or on weekends. In such cases, signing in/out will be required. The sign-in book is located in the vestibule of the Administration Building. Under no circumstances will there be access to the campus after 11:00 pm.

Policy Regarding Pay for Inclement Weather Days

It is the policy of Mill Neck Family of Organizations to remain open during most periods of inclement weather; however, where extraordinary circumstances warrant, due to weather or unforeseen business interruption, the company reserves the right to close the facility. Should this occur, employees are expected to listen to the calls, or read the text, that Mill Neck makes to the Administration staff, Mill Neck Foundation, Center for Hearing Health, and Mill Neck Services Inc. during periods of adverse weather to find out if your Department is open or closed on a given day. The decision to close the Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf is separate and distinct from this policy.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations makes a decision by 5:30 am during periods of such inclement weather and communicates this to the Department Supervisor to create a mass "robo call" to all employees. Mill Neck will also post the closure on our websites.

Mill Neck Closed

If Mill Neck announces it will close on a given day, all salary staff will receive their regular pay for the day of closure. For hourly employees on a day of closure, the employee will receive an amount equivalent to four hours of base pay for the day.

Mill Neck Open

If Mill Neck remains open on an adverse weather day, employees who report to work will receive their normal pay for the day. Mill Neck reserves the right to delay opening, which shall be announced by phone or text, in those instances, employees shall receive a full day of pay should they elect to work. If an employee elects not to report to work on a day Mill Neck has opted to remain open, the employee can elect to 1) use any accrued paid time off for the missed day or 2) not be paid for the day.

Regardless of whether Mill Neck remains open or closed on an inclement day, it is each employee's decision to determine if they can safely arrive at work under the conditions. If an employee elects not to work on a given day, Mill Neck requires the courtesy of a phone call or text to your manager or supervisor advising as to your status for the day, prior to the beginning of the work day.

Questions about this policy should be addressed to your department manager or human resources department.

Attendance and Punctuality

All employees of Mill Neck Family of Organizations are expected to report to work regularly and on time. All absences due to your illness or a family sick day must be reported to the main desk prior to the time the employee is expected to report to work. All absence calls, other than an emergency situation, must be made within a reasonable amount of time. The main desk accepts phone calls beginning at 6:30 am. The telephone number to call is 516-922-4100 ext. 0 or ext. 223.

The Administration recognizes, however, that occasional, unavoidable circumstances can prevent employees from arriving at work. However, chronic or excessive absences or lateness may be the subject of progressive discipline, starting with a verbal warning.

If a staff member becomes ill during the work day, he/she must notify their immediate supervisor and the Personnel Dept. informing them of their plans to go home. All time off will be deducted in half day increments.

Attendance is considered part of the job performance and is reflected in the evaluation of your work.

Vacation and holidays must be scheduled with one's supervisor in advance. Sick leave may be used in the case of emergency or sudden illness without prior scheduling. Patterns of absenteeism or tardiness may result in discipline even if the employee has not yet exhausted available paid time off. Absences due to illnesses or injuries that qualify under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) may be counted against an employee's attendance record. Medical documentation within the guidelines of the FMLA may be required in these instances.

Not reporting to work and not calling to report the absence is a no-call/no-show and is a serious matter. The first instance of a no call/no show will result in a final written warning. The second separate offense may result in termination of employment with no additional disciplinary steps. A no call/no show lasting three days may be considered job abandonment and may be deemed an employee's voluntary resignation of employment.

Attire and Grooming

It is important for all employees to project a professional image while at work by being appropriately attired. Mill Neck Family of Organizations expects its employees to report to work dressed and groomed appropriately for the job function for which they are assigned. Where the job duties are primarily performed in the office, suits and business casual dress, appropriate for the business setting, are expected of all employees.

Shorts, jeans, sneakers, backless shoes, logo tee-shirts, attire exposing the midriff, and excessive piercings are examples of clothing not appropriate for this environment. All visible tattoos shall be covered when possible. Natural and artificial scents may become a distraction in a well-functioning workplace and are also subject to this policy.

Mill Neck Family of Organizations is confident that employees will use their best judgment regarding attire and appearance. Management reserves the right to determine appropriateness. Any employee who is improperly dressed will be counseled or in severe cases may be sent home to change clothes. Continued disregard of this policy may be cause for disciplinary action, which may result in termination.

Electronic Communication and Internet Use

The following guidelines have been established for using the Internet, company-provided cell phones and e-mail in an appropriate, ethical and professional manner:

- Internet, company-provided equipment (e.g., cell phone, laptops, and computers) and services may not be used for transmitting, retrieving or storing any communications of a defamatory, discriminatory, harassing or pornographic nature.
- The following actions are forbidden: using disparaging, abusive, profane or offensive language; creating, viewing or displaying materials that might adversely or negatively reflect upon Mill Neck Family of Organizations or be contrary to Mill Neck Family of Organizations' best interests; and engaging in any illegal activities, including piracy, cracking, extortion, blackmail, copyright infringement, and unauthorized access of any computers and company-provided equipment such as cell phones and laptops.
- Employees may not copy, retrieve, modify or forward copyrighted materials, except with permission or as a single copy to reference only.
- Employees must not use the system in a way that disrupts its use by others. Employees must not send or receive large files that could be saved/transferred via thumb drives. Employees are prohibited from sending or receiving files that are not related to work.
- Employees should not open suspicious e-mails, pop-ups or downloads. Contact IT with any questions or concerns to reduce the release of viruses or to contain viruses immediately.
- Internal and external e-mails are considered business records and may be subject to discovery in the event of litigation. Be aware of this possibility when sending e-mail within and outside the company.

Right to Monitor

All company-supplied technology and company-related work records belong to the company and not to the employee. Mill Neck Family of Organizations routinely monitors use of company-supplied technology. Inappropriate or illegal use or communications may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Social Media—Acceptable Use

Below are guidelines for social media use.

Employees may not post financial, confidential, sensitive or proprietary information about the company, clients, employees or applicants.

Employees may not post obscenities, slurs or personal attacks that can damage the reputation of the company, clients, employees or applicants.

Campus Parking

Parking is provided for the convenience of all employees. Mill Neck assumes no responsibility for any damage done to your vehicle. Should you have any problem, you need to process it through your insurance company.

Cell Phone Policy

Employees are responsible for proper care and safeguarding of the company's cell phone. Employees assigned cell phones should maintain the phone on their person at all times during duty hours or, if the cell phone is not in use, maintain the cell phone out of sight in a secure (locked) desk drawer or file cabinet. If an employee is charging the cell phone at his/her desk, the cell phone shall not be left unattended without proper safeguards against loss or theft. At all times, the employee must safeguard the cell phone against loss or theft.

Proper care means that the cell phones and accessories are maintained in the condition in which they were issued, absent normal wear. Employees are encouraged to save the box in which the phone and accessories were provided. Upon separation of Mill Neck or reassignment to a new position within Mill Neck that does not require an Agency cell phone; the device and accessories must be returned immediately to their supervisor.

If the Agency cell phone is lost or stolen, the employee must immediately contact their immediate supervisor within 24 hours or the next business day to cancel the service.

The Department Head where the employee works will review each instance of a lost or stolen cell phone to determine whether the loss of the device was a result of gross negligence or reckless conduct on the part of the employee. This determination is based solely on the information contained and the procedures expressed in this policy statement. If gross negligence or reckless conduct is determined, the employee will be required to reimburse the Agency the replacement cost of the phone. As stated, the replacement cost will be determined by the contractor. If the employee is determined to be responsible for the lost or theft, the Department Head will notify the employee in writing, with copies to the Chief Financial Officer and Director of Information Technology. COMPENSATION

Performance and Salary Review

Increases are based on company performance and financials and are not guaranteed. A performance review does not always result in an automatic salary increase. The employee's overall performance and salary level relative to his/her position responsibilities are evaluated to determine if a salary increase would be warranted.

Salary adjustments are occasionally requested or warranted at times other than the employee's scheduled annual salary reviews. Out-of-cycle salary increases must be preapproved by the department manager, HR and the company president. Human Resources will review all salary increase/adjustment requests to ensure internal equity and compliance with company policies and guidelines.

Payment of Wages

Salary payment is made biweekly for base salary due up to the Sunday of the pay date week. Paydays are usually biweekly on every other Friday.

Overtime payment, which is included with the nonexempt employee's base salary payment, is also paid biweekly with such payment covering hours worked in the prior biweekly period.

It is the company's policy that employee paychecks will only be given personally to that employee or mailed to his/her home address.

If the normal payday falls on a company-recognized holiday, paychecks will be distributed one workday before the aforementioned schedule.

Employees may be paid by check or through direct deposit of funds. We encourage employees to sign up for direct deposit. With direct deposit, your pay is available to you at 9:00 am on pay day AS CASH. Your check can go into either a savings or checking account, or up to two different accounts at any financial institution of your choice.

In the event of a lost paycheck, the Human Resource department must be notified in writing as soon as possible and before a replacement check can be issued. In the event the lost paycheck is recovered and the company identifies the endorsement as that of the employee, the employee must remit the amount of the replacement check to the company within 24 hours of the time it is demanded.

If an employee's marital status changes or the number of exemptions previously claimed increases or decreases, a new Form W-4 must be submitted to the Human Resource department.

Except for extreme emergencies and vacation pay, no salary advances will be made.

Mill Neck fully complies with the salary basis requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). Therefore, the agency prohibits all company Management staff as well as the Payroll Office from making improper deductions from the salaries of employees.

If an employee believes that an improper deduction has been made to their salary, that employee should immediately report this information to their direct supervisor, or to the Human Resource Director.

Reports of improper deductions will be promptly investigated. If it is determined that an improper deduction has occurred, the employee will be promptly reimbursed for any improper deductions.

Time Reporting

A work hour is any hour of the day that is worked and should be recorded to the nearest quarter of an hour. The workday is defined as the 24-hour period starting at 12:00 a.m. and ending at 11:59 p.m. The workweek covers seven consecutive days beginning on Monday and ending on Sunday. The usual workweek period is 40 hours.

Overtime is defined as hours worked by an hourly or nonexempt employee in excess of 40 hours in a workweek and should be recorded to the nearest tenth of an hour. Overtime must be approved in advance by the manager to whom the employee reports.

Employees will submit their time record weekly as directed by their manager. Each employee is to maintain an accurate daily record of his or her hours worked. All absences from work schedules should be appropriately recorded.

Meal/Rest Periods

The scheduling of meal periods at Mill Neck Family of Organizations is set by the employee's immediate manager with the goal of providing the least possible disruption to company operations.

Mandatory Lunch Period

Employee lunch periods are important to company productivity and employee health. Employees who work at least four consecutive hours will be provided a lunch break not to exceed 60 minutes. Employees who work 4 hours or less are not entitled to a lunch break. The lunch period will not be included in the total hours of work per day and is not compensable. Nonexempt employees are to be completely relieved of all job duties while on lunch breaks.

The lunch period may not be used to account for an employee's late arrival or early departure or to cover time off for other purposes.

Overtime Pay (nonexempt employees)

Nonexempt employees who exceed 40 hours of work time in a workweek will be paid time and one half.

Paid leave, such as holiday, sick or vacation pay, does not apply toward work time.

The workweek begins at 12:00 a.m. on Monday morning and ends at 11:59 p.m. on Sunday night.

Supervisors are required to obtain approval from managers prior to the use of overtime.

Employees who anticipate the need for overtime to complete the week's work must notify the supervisor in advance and obtain approval before working hours that extend beyond their normal schedule.

During busy periods employees may be required to work extended hours.

Employee Travel and Reimbursement

Employees will be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with approved travel on behalf of the company.

Travelers seeking reimbursement should incur the lowest reasonable travel expenses and exercise care to avoid the appearance of impropriety. If a circumstance arises that is not specifically covered in the travel policies, the most conservative course of action should be adopted. Air travel is reimbursed only for Coach Class fares.

Travel for staff must be authorized in advance. Travelers should verify that planned travel is eligible for reimbursement before making travel arrangements. Upon completion of the trip, and within 30 days, the traveler must submit a Travel Reimbursement Form and supporting documentation to obtain reimbursement of expenses.

Exempt employees will be paid their regular salary for weeks in which they travel. Nonexempt employees will be paid for travel time in accordance with federal and state wage payment laws.

TIME OFF/LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Holiday Pay

Mill Neck Family of Organizations recognizes twelve paid holidays each year:

- New Year's Day
- Martin Luther King Jr. Day
- Presidents Day
- Good Friday
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Columbus Day
- Veterans Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Day After Thanksgiving
- Christmas Day

Should a legal holiday fall on a weekend, the holiday will be observed on the work day closest to the holiday.

When an employee works less than five days per week, and is scheduled to work on a paid holiday, that employee is paid for that day. When the paid holiday falls on a day of the week the employee is not scheduled to work, the employee does not receive extra compensation, or a different day off with pay.

Time off may be granted to employees who desire to observe a religious holiday that is not recognized by the company.

Vacation

All full-time employees are eligible for vacation leave benefits. Full-time employees are those working 35-plus hours per week. Vacation accrual begins on the first day of full-time employment. Vacation is accrued according to the schedule in this policy. Vacation can be used only after it is earned. Staff may begin to use this leave at the start of the next fiscal year, July 1st. The following July 1st (second fiscal year), the staff member will start off with ten (10) vacation days, as well as any previously unused vacation days. Each employee will receive an additional vacation day yearly until the maximum of twenty (20) vacation days are reached. Vacation leave will not be earned during an unpaid leave of absence.

If an employee is terminated prior to completion of the Probationary Period, no vacation days are accrued.

To schedule vacation time, employees should submit a completed Request for Authorized Absence form to their supervisor at least three days before the requested leave. The Personnel Dept. will ensure you have enough accrued leave available to cover the dates requested. Requests will be approved based on a number of factors, including department operating and staffing requirements. The Personnel Dept. will return the leave request to the employee within three business days of the date it is submitted indicating that the request has been approved or denied. If the request for vacation leave is denied, the supervisor should provide an appropriate reason on the form returned to the employee. All requests are subject to the approval of the Superintendent/President/Executive Director.

In the case of two staff (in the same department) requesting the same time off, the person with seniority will have the first choice. Seniority is based on earliest full-time date of hire. Certain days or weeks may not be available for leave, subject to the needs of the organizations.

To provide for the orderly administration of the organization, no employee may take more than two (2) times their annual allotment of vacation days in any one fiscal year (July 1 to June 30th). Employees with four (4) weeks of paid vacation (20 days) may not take more than forty (40) days in one fiscal year.

Vacation will be paid at the employee's base rate at the time the leave is taken. Vacation pay is not included in overtime calculation and does not include any special forms of compensation such as incentives, commissions, bonuses or shift differentials.

If a holiday falls during the employee's vacation, or if the agency closes due to an emergency situation, the time will not be charged against the employee's accumulated time.

All vacation time off will be deducted in half time increments (either taking the morning or afternoon off).

Employees who earn paid vacation days are encouraged to use them during employment. At retirement/termination, employees may be paid for up to 30 accumulated unused days. Such payment will be made in one check in the last payroll prior to the retirement date. Unused days above 30 will have no value to the employee at retirement. In the event of the employee's death, earned unused vacation time will be paid to the employee's estate or designated beneficiary.

Mill Neck believes that vacation is important to the health and well-being of our employees and encourages all employees to utilize their vacation days. Therefore effective July 2016, Mill Neck will only allow employees to carry over a maximum of 30 days of unused vacation days. In the event special work demands prevent an employee from taking all available vacation days, a request may be made to carry over no more than five days into the next vacation cycle. To be effective, approval must be in writing. If not used, remaining vacation time will be forfeited.

For Administration and Mill Neck Foundation Only

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations in observance of Christmas and New Year holidays will close all offices on Christmas Day and New Year's Day. If these holidays fall on a Saturday, the office will be closed on the preceding Friday. If the holiday falls on a Sunday, the offices will be closed on the following Monday.

Additionally, in keeping with the spirit of the holidays, it's been our tradition to close on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve.

As in previous years, we will close the campus between Christmas and New Year's Day to conserve energy. Based on how the calendar falls each year, we ask that you use either Personal or Vacation days for a maximum of up to three days. Please reserve these days when planning your time off.

Sick and Personal Leave

Every employee is vital to the success of Mill Neck, or his/her position would not exist. There is an expectation that employees will be at work every day. The availability of paid sick leave is not to be casually used, nor are they to be considered an "entitlement" of paid time off. A primary purpose for sick leave availability is to protect an employee against a "catastrophic" illness or injury during an employee's career. Employees are encouraged to build up a significant "bank" of sick days for this purpose. Unused sick leave may have value in reducing health insurance cost in retirement.

A total of fifteen (15) paid days of leave shall be granted to each full-time permanent employee at the beginning of the July 1st fiscal year. If an employee is hired after July 1st, the employee shall receive his/her time on a pro-rated basis. Sick and Personal time is subject to the following restrictions:

Twelve (12) days shall be allocated to sick leave, and three (3) days shall be allocated to personal leave. Sick days may be accumulated from year to year. Personal days must be used by June 30th of the fiscal year in which they are earned.

Of the twelve (12) allowable sick days per fiscal year, all may be used personally by the employee or for illness of the employee's spouse, children or parents. However, any sick days remaining, which were carried over, must be used for employee sickness.

All Mill Neck employees are expected to report to work regularly and on time. All absence calls, other than an emergency situation, must be reported to the main desk by 7:30 am or prior to the time the employee is expected to report to work. If you are feeling ill during the night, and you know you will not be at work the next day, please leave a message on ext. 0 or ext. 223. The main desk accepts phone calls beginning at 6:30 a.m.

If a staff member becomes ill during the working day, he/she must notify their immediate supervisor and the Personnel Dept., informing them of their plans to go home. All sick and personal time off will be deducted in half-day increments.

If a staff member is out sick for three (3) consecutive days, they must provide a doctor's note granting them full medical clearance to return back to work.

Staff returning from an extended medical leave must provide us with a completed Mill Neck's Medical Clearance Form. This medical form lists several of your essential job responsibilities allowing your physician to determine whether or not you are able to perform your responsibilities with or without a reasonable accommodation. This form must be signed off by your treating physician indicating full medical clearance. Based on the provided information from your physician, Mill Neck may require you to get a second opinion at our expense. This is to ensure that you do not risk further setbacks to your health. Should your medical leave continue more than six months, you will be responsible for the full monthly medical and dental premium until you return or cease employment.

Employees are not paid for unused sick or personal leave upon termination of employment.

Attendance is considered part of the job performance and is reflected in the evaluation of your work.

Personal Day

Full time employees are entitled to three (3) Personal Days each fiscal year. For part-time staff, and newly hired staff, their personal days will be pro-rated. Personal days may not be accumulated from one year to another. Employees who leave the agency will not be paid for unused personal days.

Use of personal days must be approved at least three days in advance. Employees must complete a Request for Authorized Absence Form. Please be aware, certain days or weeks may not be available for leave, subject to the needs of the organization.

Compensation Time

All staff must receive written pre-approval from their immediate supervisor prior to accruing any compensatory time. Staff will only accrue this time as it relates specifically to job performance. Employees must complete a Request for Authorized Absence Form and submit it to their supervisor.

All compensation time must be taken within the following month or it will be forfeited. Compensatory time must be used in half day or full day intervals. Your supervisor must approve any periods of less time prior to its usage.

Requests for compensation time must be completed at least 3 days prior to the desired date consistent with the company's policy on personnel time.

Family and Medical Leave Act

The Family Medical Leave Act requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job protected leave to eligible employees for certain family and medical reasons. To be an "eligible employee" under the FMLA, an employee must meet the following three conditions: The employee must have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months; the employee must have been employed for at least 1,250 hours "of service" during the 12 month period immediately preceding the beginning of the leave; and the employee must be employed at a worksite where 50 or more employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles of the worksite.

General Provisions

Under this policy, Mill Neck Family of Organizations will grant up to 12 weeks (or up to 26 weeks of military caregiver leave to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness) during a 12-month period to eligible employees. The leave may be paid, unpaid or a combination of paid and unpaid leave, depending on the circumstances of the leave and as specified in this policy.

Eligibility

To qualify to take family or medical leave under this policy, the employee must meet the following conditions:

- The employee must have worked for the company for 12 months or 52 weeks. The 12 months or 52 weeks need not have been consecutive. Separate periods of employment will be counted, provided that the break in service does not exceed seven years.

Separate periods of employment will be counted if the break in service exceeds seven years due to National Guard or Reserve military service obligations or when there is a written agreement, including a collective bargaining agreement, stating the employer's intention to rehire the employee after the service break. For eligibility purposes, an employee will be considered to have been employed for an entire week even if the employee was on the payroll for only part of a week or if the employee is on leave during the week.

- The employee must have worked at least 1,250 hours during the 12-month period immediately before the date when the leave is requested to commence. The principles established under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) determine the number of hours worked by an employee. The FLSA does not include time spent on paid or unpaid leave as hours worked. Consequently, these hours of leave should not be counted in determining the 1,250 hours eligibility test for an employee under FMLA.
- The employee must work in a work site where 50 or more employees are employed by the company within 75 miles of that office or work site. The distance is to be calculated by using available transportation by the most direct route.

Type of Leave Covered

To qualify as FMLA leave under this policy, the employee must be taking leave for one of the reasons listed below:

- The birth of a child and in order to care for that child.
- The placement of a child for adoption or foster care and to care for a newly placed child.
- To care for a spouse, child or parent with a serious health condition (Under the FMLA, a "spouse" means a husband or wife as defined under the law in the state where the employee resides, including same-sex marriages in states that legally recognize such civil unions).
- The serious health condition (described below) of the employee.

An employee may take leave because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the employee's position.

A serious health condition is defined as a condition that requires inpatient care at a hospital, hospice or residential medical care facility, including any period of incapacity or any subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care or as a condition that requires continuing care by a licensed health care provider.

This policy covers illnesses of a serious and long-term nature, resulting in recurring or lengthy absences. Generally, a chronic or long-term health condition that would result in a period of three consecutive days of incapacity with the first visit to the health care provider within seven days of the onset of the incapacity and a second visit within 30 days of the incapacity would be considered a serious health condition. For chronic conditions requiring periodic health care visits for treatment, such visits must take place at least twice a year.

Employees with questions about what illnesses are covered under this FMLA policy or under the company's sick leave policy are encouraged to consult with the Human Resource manager.

If an employee takes paid sick leave for a condition that progresses into a serious health condition and the employee requests unpaid leave as provided under this policy, the company may designate all or some portion of related leave taken as leave under this policy, to the extent that the earlier leave meets the necessary qualifications.

- Qualifying exigency leave for families of members of the National Guard or Reserves or of a regular component of the Armed Forces when the covered military member is on covered active duty or called to covered active duty.

An employee whose spouse, son, daughter or parent has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active military duty or who is already on covered active duty may take up to 12 weeks of leave for reasons related to or affected by the family member's call-up or service. The qualifying exigency must be one of the following: a) short-notice deployment, b) military events and activities, c) child care and school activities, d) financial and legal arrangements, e) counseling, f) rest and recuperation, g) post-deployment activities, and h) additional activities that arise out of active duty, provided that the employer and employee agree, including agreement on timing and duration of the leave.

Covered active duty means:

- In the case of a member of a regular component of the Armed Forces, duty during the deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country.
- In the case of a member of a reserve component of the Armed Forces, duty during the deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country under a call or order to active duty under a provision of law referred to in Title 10 U.S.C. §101(a)(13)(B).

The leave may commence as soon as the individual receives the call-up notice. (Son or daughter for this type of FMLA leave is defined the same as for child for other types of FMLA leave except that the person does not have to be a minor.) This type of leave would be counted toward the employee's 12-week maximum of FMLA leave in a 12-month period.

- Military caregiver leave (also known as covered service member leave) to care for an injured or ill service member or veteran.

An employee whose son, daughter, parent or next of kin is a covered service member may take up to 26 weeks in a single 12-month period to take care of leave to care for that service member.

Next of kin is defined as the closest blood relative of the injured or recovering service member.

The term covered service member means:

- A member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves) who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy or is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness.
- A veteran who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy for a serious injury or illness and who was a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves) at any time during the period of five years preceding the date on which the veteran undergoes that medical treatment, recuperation or therapy.

The term serious injury or illness means:

- In the case of a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves), an injury or illness that was incurred by the member in line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (or that existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces) and that may render the member medically unfit to perform the duties of the member's office, grade, rank or rating.
- In the case of a veteran who was a member of the Armed Forces (including a member of the National Guard or Reserves) at any time during a period when the person was a covered service member, a qualifying (as defined by the Secretary of Labor) injury or illness that was incurred by the member in line of duty on an active duty in the Armed Forces (or that existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces) and that manifested itself before or after the member became a veteran.

Amount of Leave

An eligible employee may take up to 12 weeks for the first five FMLA circumstances above (under heading "Type of Leave Covered") under this policy during any 12-month period. The company will measure the 12-month period as a rolling 12-month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any leave under this policy. Each time an employee takes leave, the company will compute the amount of leave the employee has taken under this policy in the last 12 months and subtract it from the 12 weeks of available leave, and the balance remaining is the amount of time the employee is entitled to take at that time.

An eligible employee can take up to 26 weeks for the FMLA military caregiver leave circumstance above during a single 12-month period. For this military caregiver leave, the company will measure the 12-month period as a rolling 12-month period measured forward. FMLA leave already taken for other FMLA circumstances will be deducted from the total of 26 weeks available.

If a husband and wife both work for the company and each wishes to take leave for the birth of a child, adoption or placement of a child in foster care, or to care for a parent (but not a parent "in-law") with a serious health condition, the husband and wife may only take a combined total of 12 weeks of leave. If a husband and wife both work for the company and each wishes to take leave to care for a covered injured or ill service member, the husband and wife may only take a combined total of 26 weeks of leave.

Employee Status and Benefits during Leave

While an employee is on leave, the company will continue the employee's health benefits during the leave period at the same level and under the same conditions as if the employee had continued to work.

Employee Status after Leave

An employee who takes leave under this policy may be asked to provide a fitness for duty (FFD) clearance from the health care provider.

Use of Paid and Unpaid Leave

All paid vacation, personal and sick leave runs concurrently with FMLA leave.

Disability leave for the birth of a child and for an employee's serious health condition, including workers' compensation leave (to the extent that it qualifies), will be designated as FMLA leave and will run concurrently with FMLA.

Intermittent Leave or a Reduced Work Schedule

The employee may take FMLA leave in 12 consecutive weeks, may use the leave intermittently (take a day periodically when needed over the year) or, under certain circumstances, may use the leave to reduce the workweek or workday, resulting in a reduced-hour schedule. In all cases, the leave may not exceed a total of 12 workweeks (or 26 workweeks to care for an injured or ill service member over a 12-month period).

Certification for the Employee's Serious Health Condition

Mill Neck Family of Organizations will require certification for the employee's serious health condition. The employee must respond to such a request within 15 days of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay. The employee must respond to such a request within 15 days of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay. Failure to provide certification may result in a denial of continuation of leave.

Recertification

Mill Neck Family of Organizations will request recertification for the serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member when circumstances have changed significantly, or if the employer receives information casting doubt on the reason given for the absence, or if the employee seeks an extension of his or her leave. Otherwise, the company may request recertification for the serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member every six months in connection with an FMLA absence.

Procedure for Requesting FMLA Leave

All employees requesting FMLA leave must provide the HR manager with verbal or written notice of the need for the leave. Within five business days after the employee has provided this notice, the HR manager will provide the employee with the DOL Notice of Eligibility and Rights. When the need for the leave is foreseeable, the employee must provide the employer with at least 30 days' notice. When an employee becomes aware of a need for FMLA leave less than 30 days in advance, the employee must provide notice of the need for the leave either the same day or the next business day. When the need for FMLA leave is not foreseeable, the employee must comply with the company's usual and customary notice and procedural requirements for requesting leave.

Designation of FMLA Leave

Within five business days after the employee has submitted the appropriate certification form, the HR manager will provide the employee with a written response to the employee's request for FMLA leave.

- Employees are allowed three days of paid leave in the event of death of the employee's brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, aunt, uncle, grandparent, grandchild or spouse's grandparent.

Jury Duty

Mill Neck will cooperate fully with employees so they may fulfill their civic obligation to serve as jurors. Upon receipt of notification from the state or federal courts of an obligation to serve on a jury, employees must notify their supervisor and provide him/her with a copy of the jury summons. The company will pay regular full-time and regular part-time employees for time off for jury duty up to three weeks of pay. The employee who serves jury duty must provide the immediate supervisor with proof of the days served.

Military Leave of Absence

Mill Neck Family of Organizations is committed to protecting the job rights of employees absent on military leave. In accordance with federal and state law, it is the company's policy that no employee or prospective employee will be subjected to any form of discrimination on the basis of that person's membership in or obligation to perform service for any of the Uniformed Services of the United States. Specifically, no person will be denied employment, reemployment, promotion or other benefit of employment on the basis of such membership. Furthermore, no person will be subjected to retaliation or adverse employment action because such person has exercised his or her rights under applicable law or company policy. If any employee believes that he or she has been subjected to discrimination in violation of company policy, the employee should immediately contact Human Resources.

Employees taking part in a variety of military duties are eligible for benefits under this policy. Such military duties include leaves of absence taken by members of the uniformed services, including Reservists and National Guard members, for training, periods of active military service and funeral honors duty, as well as time spent being examined to determine fitness to perform such service. Subject to certain exceptions under the applicable laws, these benefits are generally limited to five years of leave of absence.

Employees requesting leave for military duty should contact Human Resources to request leave as soon as they are aware of the need for leave.

Maternity/Child Rearing/Adoptive Leave

Maternity leave shall be granted to all full-time female staff members for a maximum of six months. You must give the agency thirty (30) days prior to when your requested leave will start.

While you are out on maternity leave, you are eligible to apply for short-term disability. New York State Disability will pay up to six weeks for vaginal delivery and eight weeks for a caesarean section. Of course, if there are any unforeseen complications, NYS Disability will continue to pay until you are medically cleared (up to a maximum of 26 weeks). Short-term disability pays at a rate of $170.00 per week and does not pay for the first week while you are out.

You may choose to use your accumulated sick time prior to the birth or while disabled as well. If you opt to use your sick time, you will receive your regular pay. A sick day will be charged for each day of illness. At the end of the disability, or when all your sick time has run out, Personnel will credit your sick bank based on the disability payments we received on your behalf. Your daily rate of pay will be divided into the available dollars to calculate the number of days credited back into your time allotment bank.

Medical and Dental insurance will continue while you are out on leave. While you are receiving checks, your monthly contributions will continue to be deducted from your check. Once your checks cease, you will be requested to mail us a check for your monthly contribution on the 20th day of the preceding month, ex. June 20th for July's payment. All checks must be made out to Mill Neck Manor.

BENEFITS

For more information regarding benefits programs, please refer to the company Summary Plan Descriptions, which were provided to employees upon hire, or contact the Personnel Department.

Medical and Dental Insurance

Mill Neck Family of Organizations currently offers regular full-time employees regularly scheduled to work a minimum of 30 hours per week enrollment in medical and dental insurance coverage options after they have been employed for 90 days.

Employees have up to 90 days from their date of hire to make medical and dental plan elections. Once made, elections are fixed for the remainder of the plan year. Changes in family status, as defined in the Plan document, allow employees to make midyear changes in coverage consistent with the family status change. Please contact the Human Resource department to determine if a family status change qualifies under the Plan document and IRS regulations.

At the end of each calendar year during open enrollment, employees may change medical and dental elections for the following calendar year.

In order to protect you and your family's rights, you should keep Mill Neck's Personnel Dept. informed of any changes in your address and the addresses of family members. You should also keep a copy, for your records, of any notices you send to the Personnel or Insurance Companies.

The Personnel department is available to answer benefits plan questions and assist in enrollment as needed.

Employees, who leave employment, as well as retirees, are not eligible to continue the dental insurance in the same manner that the Delta Dental plan is administered. When an employee leaves service or retires he/she are entitled to continue the Delta Dental plan under COBRA rules and regulations (18 months). The employee (retiree) will be contacted directly by the Dental insurance carrier (Delta Dental) for his/her continuation through COBRA in the plan. After you have received the information from Delta Dental, if you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Personnel Office.

COBRA – Continuation Health Insurance Coverage Rights

* Continuation Coverage Rights Under COBRA*

Introduction

This notice lists important information about your right to COBRA continuation coverage, which is a temporary extension of coverage under the Mill Neck's Health Insurance Plan. This notice explains COBRA continuation coverage, when it may become available to you and your family, and what you need to do to protect your right to get it. When you become eligible for COBRA, you may also become eligible for other coverage options that may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage.

The right to COBRA continuation coverage was created by a federal law, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA). COBRA continuation coverage can become available to you and other members of your family when group health coverage would otherwise end. For more information about your rights and obligations under the Plan and under federal law, you should review the Mill Neck's Health Insurance Summary Plan Description or contact the Human Resource Director.

You may have other options available to you when you lose group health coverage. For example, you may be eligible to buy an individual plan through the Health Insurance Marketplace. By enrolling in coverage through the Marketplace, you may qualify for lower costs on your monthly premiums and lower out-of-pocket costs. Additionally, you may qualify for a 30-day special enrollment period for another group health plan for which you are eligible (such as a spouse's plan), even if that plan generally doesn't accept late enrollees.

What is COBRA continuation coverage?

COBRA continuation coverage is a continuation of Plan coverage when it would otherwise end because of a life event. This is also called a "qualifying event." Specific qualifying events are listed later in this notice. After a qualifying event, COBRA continuation coverage must be offered to each person who is a "qualified beneficiary." You, your spouse, and your dependent children could become qualified beneficiaries if coverage under the Plan is lost because of the qualifying event. Under Mill Neck's Health Insurance Plan, qualified beneficiaries who elect COBRA continuation coverage must pay for COBRA continuation coverage.

If you're an employee, you'll become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage under the Plan because of the following qualifying events:

- Your hours of employment are reduced, or
- Your employment ends for any reason other than your gross misconduct.

If you're the spouse of an employee, you'll become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage under the Plan because of the following qualifying events:

- Your spouse dies;
- Your spouse's hours of employment are reduced;
- Your spouse's employment ends for any reason other than his or her gross misconduct;
- Your spouse becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both); or
- You become divorced or legally separated from your spouse.

Your dependent children will become qualified beneficiaries if they lose coverage under the Plan because of the following qualifying events:

- The parent-employee dies;
- The parent-employee's hours of employment are reduced;
- The parent-employee's employment ends for any reason other than his or her gross misconduct;
- The parent-employee becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B, or both);
- The parents become divorced or legally separated; or
- The child stops being eligible for coverage under the Plan as a "dependent child."

When is COBRA continuation coverage available?

The Plan will offer COBRA continuation coverage to qualified beneficiaries only after the Plan Administrator has been notified that a qualifying event has occurred. The employer must notify the Plan Administrator of the following qualifying events:

- The end of employment or reduction of hours of employment;
- Death of the employee;
- The employee's becoming entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both).

For all other qualifying events (divorce or legal separation of the employee and spouse or a dependent child's losing eligibility for coverage as a dependent child), you must notify the Plan Administrator within 60 days after the qualifying event occurs. You must provide this notice to the Human Resource Director.

How is COBRA continuation coverage provided?

Once the Human Resource Director receives notice that a qualifying event has occurred, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered to each of the qualified beneficiaries. Each qualified beneficiary will have an independent right to elect COBRA continuation coverage. Covered employees may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their spouses, and parents may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their children.

COBRA continuation coverage is a temporary continuation of coverage that generally lasts for 18 months due to employment termination or reduction of hours of work. Certain qualifying events, or a second qualifying event during the initial period of coverage, may permit a beneficiary to receive a maximum of 36 months of coverage.

There are also ways in which this 18-month period of COBRA continuation coverage can be extended:

Disability extension of 18-month period of COBRA continuation coverage

If you or anyone in your family covered under the Plan is determined by Social Security to be disabled you must notify the Human Resource Director in a timely fashion, you and your entire family may be entitled to get up to an additional 11 months of COBRA continuation coverage, for a maximum of 29 months. The disability would have to have started at some time before the 60th day of COBRA continuation coverage and must last at least until the end of the 18-month period of COBRA continuation coverage.

Second qualifying event extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If your family experiences another qualifying event during the 18 months of COBRA continuation coverage, the spouse and dependent children in your family can get up to 18 additional months of COBRA continuation coverage, for a maximum of 36 months, if the Plan is properly notified about the second qualifying event. This extension may be available to the spouse and any dependent children getting COBRA continuation coverage if the employee or former employee dies; becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both); gets divorced or legally separated; or if the dependent child stops being eligible under the Plan as a dependent child. This extension is only available if the second qualifying event would have caused the spouse or dependent child to lose coverage under the Plan had the first qualifying event not occurred.

Are there other coverage options besides COBRA Continuation Coverage?

Yes. Instead of enrolling in COBRA continuation coverage, there may be other coverage options for you and your family through the Health Insurance Marketplace, Medicaid, or other group health plan coverage options (such as a spouse's plan) through what is called a "special enrollment period." Some of these options may cost less than COBRA continuation coverage. You can learn more about many of these options at www.healthcare.gov.

Policy Regarding the Provision of Health Insurance Benefits for Retired Employees

These policies are to apply to retirees of Mill Neck Manor, Mill Neck Foundation, and Mill Neck Services. Employees transferring their employment between any of the members of the Mill Neck Family of Organizations will have their years of service added together for purposes of this policy.

To be eligible for employer contributions toward the cost of health insurance in retirement, an employee must have worked the equivalent of 10 full years of full or part time employment. (Part-time is defined as a minimum of 21 paid and scheduled hours per week.)

To be eligible for employer contributions toward the cost of health insurance in retirement, the employee must be age 65, or older. Should an employee leave service with 10 full years of employment, but less than 65 years old, the employee must pay the full cost of their health insurance until they achieve age 65. There will be no credit until age 65 for unused sick days.

Retired employees are required to pay 50% of the cost of the individual coverage and 65% of the cost of family coverage, except that employees may receive a credit towards their share of the premium for unused sick days, as per the organization's policy, assuming they have worked until age 65, or later.

Calculation of Credit for Unused Sick Days

At retirement, the retiree's final daily salary is computed. That amount is multiplied by the number of unused sick days (180 is the maximum allowable accumulation). The resulting number is the total dollar credit available to the retiree.

Using the New York State supplied actuarial chart, the projected number of months of retiree's expected life is determined. The total dollar credit is then divided by the number of months. The result is the monthly credit available to the retiree towards their share of the health insurance costs.

This dollar credit is compared annually to the retiree's share of the health insurance cost. An annual adjustment is made to the amount (if any) the retiree is required to pay.

In order to protect you and your family's rights, you should keep Mill Neck's Personnel Dept. informed of any changes in your address and the addresses of family members. You should also keep a copy, for your records, of any notices you send to the Personnel or Insurance Companies.

Retirees, who fail to make the required contributions, will be dropped from the organization's health insurance after falling 60 days behind.

Policy on Medicare Part “B” Reimbursement

The Mill Neck Family of Organizations endeavors to provide health insurance to its employees and retirees, where possible:

When serving as an active employee, insurance provided by Mill Neck remains as primary insurance regardless of the employee’s age. Once an employee retires, and achieves age 65, insurance provided by Mill Neck becomes secondary, and Medicare becomes the primary coverage.

Mill Neck requires its retirees to obtain Medicare Part “B” (doctor) coverage. Doing so reduces the cost of Mill Neck’s insurance plan. This reduction enables Mill Neck to reimburse retirees for the cost of their Part “B” premium.

Some retirees, because of their gross income in retirement, pay more than the basic Part “B” premium. NY State guidelines require that Mill Neck reimburse the retiree for the higher premium amount.

Reimbursement of the basic premium is done twice a year. In June, retirees are reimbursed for their basic premiums for the period of January 1, to June 30th. In December of each year, retirees are reimbursed for their premium payments from July 1 to December 31.

Retirees must apply for reimbursement of excess premiums by February 28th of the subsequent year. To be reimbursed, retirees must submit two documents by February 28th.

- 1) The letter from the Social Security Administration, normally received in November of the previous year (letter received in November of 2013, to describe the Part “B” premium deducted from your Social Security payment in 2014).
- 2) The forms SSA-1099, normally received in January of the following year (letter received in January 2015) showing the amount you paid in Part “B” premiums in 2014.

We must receive both documents to reimburse your excess Part “B” payments.

For Employees who wish to opt out of taking Mill Neck’s Health Insurance Coverage

There have been many changes within the health industry due to the “Patient Protection and Affordable Health Care Act (PPACA). Mill Neck has no choice but to comply; therefore, employees now have the following options available to them: Remain on their present employer plan; Enroll under the NY State Health Exchanges; or remain on their spouses’ insurance. As Mill Neck will be subject of frequent audits, we have taken the following steps to assure compliance to the new rules and regulations.

Mill Neck will issue you a medical stipend that covers six months of being off our insurance plan. The time frame represents July through December. In June, you will receive another check which represents January through June. You must be off our insurance plan for at least six months before you receive your first medical stipend.

The payment calculation will remain the same except that it is split into two checks. Mill Neck takes the annual Mill Neck' share of providing an individual Empire plan insurance, times 35%.

In order to process these checks we will continue to rely on the evidence that you provide to us. You will need to sign an affidavit indicating you are covered under another insurance plan, along with a copy of your current health insurance card. You must be active on the payroll when the stipend checks are disseminated. We will require this information twice a year. Mill Neck will not pro-rate the medical stipend if you leave employment for any reason.

Flexible Spending Account

As part of the company's Flexible Benefits Plan, we currently offer an employee-funded flexible spending account (FSA) to regular full-time and regular scheduled part-time employees hired on or before January 1 of a calendar year. Plan participants may elect an annual amount of flexible dollars, up to $2500.00, to pay for eligible health care expenses, including medical or dental insurance deductibles, copayments, and out-of-pocket costs for vision care and other types of care.

Mill Neck's policy already has in place a 75 day grace period. This allows any unused salary reduction contributions in your health FSA to be carried over into the grace period of the following year. For example, if you had $750 remaining in your account, it allows you to carry it over into the next year's allotment and it will not count against the $2500 limit for the next plan year. You would have to use the $750 by March 15th, otherwise you would lose it.

Please contact Human Resources for more information.

Group Life Insurance

Mill Neck offers regular full-time employees who have been employed by Mill Neck Foundation for 30 days an employer-paid basic group term life policy along with an accidental death and dismemberment policy. Each policy generally pays a death benefit equivalent to one year of your annual salary. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has passed a regulation that requires staff to pay income tax on employer provided group insurance coverage that exceeds $50,000 per year. This is called "imputed income", and it is based on both your age and your annual salary. The resulting imputed income amount must be shown on your annual W-2 statement as additional income, and you will subject to pay tax on this amount.

If your annual salary exceeds $50,000, and you wish not to pay any additional tax, Mill Neck will reduce your maximum life insurance benefit to $50,000.

Short-Term Disability Benefits

The company's short-term disability plan is a benefit that provides partial pay for employees who are unable to work due to illness, injury or disability not related to work, after an absence of more than seven consecutive calendar days. Benefits begin on the eighth day of disability and continue for related absences up to a maximum of 26 weeks. Employees will not be able to return to work without submitting to Human Resources a note from a physician or licensed health care professional authorizing the employee's return. Any time spent on short-term disability counts as part of the employee's FMLA leave.

The maximum amount paid by our carrier is $170.00 per week for a maximum of 26 weeks. If you opt to use your sick, vacation and personal time, you will receive your regular pay. A day will be charged for each day of illness. At the end of the disability, or when all your time has run out, Personnel will credit your bank based on the disability payments we received on your behalf. Your daily rate of pay will be divided into the available dollars to calculate the number of days credited back into your time allotment bank.

Please contact Human Resources for more information.

Long-Term Disability Benefits

Mill Neck provides eligible full-time employees a noncontributory long-term disability (LTD) plan. This noncontributory base plan provides for monthly LTD benefits of 60% of their basic monthly earnings, less any other offsets. Eligible employees are enrolled on the first day of the third month following their date of hire. Long-term disability coverage terminates on the last day of employment.

Please contact Human Resources for more information.

403(b) Plan

As an employee of Mill Neck Family of Organizations, you are able to participate in one of our five 403 (b) Tax Sheltered Annuity Plans (Thrivent Financial, Fidelity Investments, ING Investments, Oppenheimer Funds and Phoenix Home Life). Under these plans, your contributions, via payroll deductions are made with pretax dollars. Generally, this 403 (b) plan is for retirement savings, and money may not be withdrawn until you reach 59 ½, without penalties. There are, however, certain exceptions.

You do not pay any Federal, State, or City income taxes on your contributions or in the amount of any interest on investment earnings credited to your 403 (b) account, until you withdraw part, or all, of your funds. The money is invested, as you direct, by an independent company. You decide the amount you want taken out of your regular paycheck to be applied to your 403 (b).

The advantage of the 403 (b) is that during your working years, you can put aside income to receive in your retirement years, when your income will probably be lower, and thus your tax rate will be lower. Also, depending on the company you choose, you can borrow against your 403 (b) account at any time, with a low interest rate.

Further details about the Plan may be obtained from the Human Resource department and the Plan document.

Workers' Compensation Benefits

Worker's Compensation insurance generally provides benefits (reimbursement of medical bills and income benefits for employees) for personal injury caused by accidents arising out and in the course of employment.

Mill Neck is covered under statutory state workers' compensation laws. Employees who sustain work-related injuries must immediately notify their department supervisor. A Mill Neck's accident form must be completed and sent to Personnel immediately. This report requires the employee, or witness to detail the nature and the extent of the injuries.

Personnel will be able to provide you, or family member, the name of the carrier, address, telephone and policy number of Mill Neck's at the time of the injury.

When seeking medical attention, advise your doctors that you have a work-related injury, and give them our name. Do not pay for your care yourself or use other health insurance. Tell your doctor to file reports with the Board and with your employer or its insurance carrier.

DO NOT pay your doctor or hospital. Those bills are paid by the insurer unless the Board disallows your case. If your case is disputed, the providers are paid when the Board decides your case. If the Board decides against you, or if you don't pursue a case, you will have to pay the doctor or hospital.

Mill Neck's worker's compensation plan covers medically necessary drugs and equipment your doctor prescribes. Get receipts for those expenses.

Further details about the Plan may be obtained from the Human Resource department and the Plan document.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

Through the employee assistance program (EAP), Mill Neck provides confidential access to professional counseling services. The EAP, available to all employees and their immediate family members, offers problem assessment, short-term counseling and referral to appropriate community and private services. This service is provided on behalf of the Health Management System of America by Reliance Standard.

The EAP is strictly confidential and is designed to safeguard an employee's privacy and rights. Contacts to and information given to the EAP counselor may be released to Mill Neck only if requested by the employee in writing. There is no cost for an employee to consult with an EAP counselor. If further counseling is necessary, the EAP counselor will outline community and private services available. The counselor will also let employees know whether any costs associated with private services may be covered by their health insurance plan. Costs that are not covered are the responsibility of the employee.

The dedicated Toll-Free Crisis Line can be utilized as frequently as necessary by calling 1-800-767-5320.
